ing a temporary base hospital and asylum for refugees."

HOPES TO AVOID WAR.

London, June 25.—The Associated Press learns Lord Salisbury is still hopeful that the Chinese crisis will be solved without war against that country as a whole.

In spite of the alarming reports he inclines to the belief that the government of China in some satisfactory form will shortly be able to reassert itself.

He does not mean that he belittles the professions of the various viceroys who have given notice of their willingness to co-operate with the united forces.

Without committing himself to a definite view of the future, he appears averse to any scheme of territorial indemnity which, when order is restored, might be suggested by the powers who have suffered during the uprising.

The interview of the United States ambassador, Mr. Joseph H. Choate, with Lord Salisbury Saturday was due to instructions received from Secretary Hay, in which the ambassador was notified of the friendly professions of the various viceroys and was instructed to secure Lord Salisbury's views beyond casual conversation.

Mr. Choate had not mentioned the crisis in the far east until he received Secretary Hay's cable message. The ambassador discovered the British premier's views were exactly as frequently represented in these dispatches.

He maintained the belief that the diplomats at Pekin had not been massacred and did not believe they were likely to be. He is eminently satisfied with the action already taken by the United States and expressed the same views as the cable dispatches attribute to Secretary Hay.

In short, the conference may be said not to have elicited a single point on which Lord Salisbury differed from the American attitude, and while he expressed his determination to use every endeavor to restore order in the Pei-Ho valley and extricate the diplomats, his estimate of the situation was tinged with a spirit of hopefulness that contrasted greatly with the general tone of the British press.

The ambassador did not discuss the eventual settlement and the likelihood of a partition of China, etc., and it may be reiterated that this phase of the situation has not yet been made the subject of an exchange of views between any nations. Judging from the account of what passed between Mr. Choate and Lord Salisbury and the statement recently made to the Associated Press by the foreign office, that Great Britain and the other nations, so far as the foreign office knew, were confining all their energies and deliberations solely to the present predicament, is a sincere statement of fact.

If Russia, Japan or any other power has an ulterior object in making capital out of the trouble in China Lord Salisbury does not appear to be aware of it.

SAYS MINISTERS ARE SAFE.

Paris, June 25.—11:25 a. m.—The French consul general at Shanghai, telegraphing yesterday, reported that the Chinese minister of railroads and telegraphs has informed him that all foreign ministers and foreigners at Pekin were safe last Tuesday, June 19, and were preparing to leave with the authority of the Chinese government.

WILL NOT AFFECT SHANGHAI.

New York, June 25.—Richard C. Morse, general secretary of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian association, has received a cablegram from Robert E. Lewis, representative of the committee stationed at Shanghai, dated June 23, which reads:

"War not likely to affect Shanghai. Lyon on way to Japan. Brockman on way to Shanghai."

There are four other representatives of the committee stationed in China. They are: D. Willard Lyon, at Pekin; Robert R. Gailey, Tien Tsin; F. S. Brockman, Nankin, and Walter J. Southam, Hong Kong.

Mr. Gailey is a native of Fawn Grove, Pa., and the center rush of the Princeton foot ball team in 1897. All of the five except Mr. Southam are Americans and all but him are married. Mr. Lyon's home is at Wooster, Ohio. Mr. Brockman's home is at Atlanta. Mr. Lewis comes from the University of Vermont, his home being at Berkshire, Vt.

THE INTERNATIONAL FORCES.

London, June 25.—In the house of commons today, referring to the failure of the American and Russian forces to reach Tien Tsin June 21, the parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, Mr. William St. John Broderick, said that since then British troops from Hong Kong had arrived at Taku and it was believed that three thousand Japanese, one thousand German and two thousand French troops had also arrived there. But, he added, the government had no information regarding the latter operations.

TO AUGMENT THE FRENCH.

Paris, June 25.—An official despatch received here from Saigon, the capital of French Cochin China, says the French armored cruiser Vauban and the transport Caravane have sailed north with 500 marines and a battery of artillery.

MR. BLACK RESIGNS.

Marion Black, who for the past few months has been manager of the Wayne Cycle company on West Berry street, has resigned and will take a position as traveling salesman for a prominent computing scale house. Mr. Black has been in business in this city for a number of years, most of the time in the bicycle trade. He has a large circle of friends in the city who will regret to hear of his departure. Henry Kohlinger, of the firm of Kohlinger & Bauer, who purchased the Stearns agency from Mr. Black some time ago, will move the stock to his store on East Columbia street.

THE FARMERS' WIVES MEET

MRS. DE VILBISS, OF ALLEN COUNTY, READ A PAPER.

Officers Were Elected for the Ensuing Term—Mrs. DeVilviss' Subject Was "Common Things."

Last Saturday at Huntington the farmers' wives of Allen, Huntington, Wells, Whitley and Wabash counties held a meeting and perfected an organization to be known as "The Home-Makers' Association of Huntington and Adjoining Counties." The object of the association is the promotion of all matters which pertain to the elevation of the rural home and a meeting will be held once a year. Any farmer's wife or daughter is eligible to become a member of the association by signing the constitution. The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. J. A. Walker, Wells county.

Vice Presidents — Mrs. William Rice, Huntington county; Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, Allen county; Mrs. Jennie Sherwood, Whitley county; Mrs. G. M. Naber, Wabash county.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Oliver Cline, Huntington.

After the introduction of the president, a general discussion on chickens and incubators was then taken up. The discussion was opened by Mrs. DeVilbiss, of Fort Wayne. She felt that almost everyone in the audience had had some experience with chickens and incubators. She stated that anyone who has an incubator must put almost all their time to its care. Others spoke on the subject, stating that they thought the use of incubators was not a success. Before the eggs are placed in the incubator the pans should be almost filled with water, as a great deal of moisture is necessary in hatching chickens. The cellar is the best place in which to keep an incubator.

"Common Things" was discussed by Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, of Fort Wayne. Mrs. DeVilbiss said she was proud and delighted to have a chance to address this assemblage on this subject. The prosperous farmer and his family are always looking into the future for some great happiness. But the only time we can ever command is the present. Yesterday is passed and tomorrow is not here yet, so we should all take care of the present. People should not worry over little things. Woman's work in the home was largely dwelt upon. Men can live and thrive without poetry, but how many have gone to wreck and ruin on account of not having a home. Women form a great part in home-making. Women should all be acquainted with the laws of health. Scientific education should be taught in the homes of the farmers. The little babies should be educated from the time they are in the cradle. Children should not be deceived, for if they are somebody is sure to pay the penalty for it in the future. Eighty per cent. of the world's greatest men were raised on the farm.

Mrs. DeVilbiss was an interesting speaker and held the closest attention during her discussion. At the meeting in January she gave several very interesting talks and all present were delighted to see her smiling face at this second gathering.

KILLED BY A MANIAC.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, June 25.—James Fitzsimmons, aged sixty-eight, was killed yesterday morning, his wife and daughter were probably fatally injured, and Joseph E. Drake, a neighbor, was terribly beaten and cut by Charles Mefford, a young plasterer, who afterward killed himself. Mefford became suddenly insane Saturday night and left home naked. Nothing was heard of him until 5 o'clock Sunday morning, when he broke into the Home for Aged Women and assaulted E. R. Andrews, the janitor. Andrew managed to pacify the maniac momentarily. He notified the police by 'phone and aroused Mr. Drake. Mefford stayed in Andrew's room long enough to put on a suit of clothes, and as he ran from the building he seized an ax. Crossing the street he jumped feet foremost through a bedroom window of Fitzsimmons' home. Drake pursued the man, but his revolver failed to act and he was struck down with the ax. Mefford ran from the building pursued by the police, and after running a mile shot himself twice, dying in the street. A peculiar feature of the tragedy is the fact that Mefford had never had any trouble with the Fitzsimmons family.

DIES FROM BITE OF A MAN.

Toledo, Ohio, June 25.—Joseph Real, a white man, died yesterday morning from lockjaw, resulting from bites received in an assault by a negro, Haley Ravelle. Ravelle was tried at the time and sent to the workhouse for thirty days. The coroner now insists that he shall be tried for manslaughter. Real's thumb was almost torn from his hand, and in the struggle he bit off his own tongue. Police officers claim that the assault was entirely unprovoked.

Among the features of the Fourth of July celebration to be given at Robison park next week will be a grand pyrotechnical exhibition. Manager Alter is making arrangements to have an expert in the business take charge of the fireworks.

The Barber Asphalt company has completed the work of paving the West Wayne street extension, and will shortly begin work on Court street.

CRAWLED BENEATH A TRAIN

FATAL ACCIDENT IN THE WABASH RAILROAD YARDS.

Mrs. Catherine Welch Attempted to Cross Track and Was Mangled by the Wheels.

Mrs. Catherine Welch, 68 years of age, was caught by a train in the Wabash yards at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and so frightfully mangled that she died soon after being taken to Hope hospital.

Mrs. Welch lived with her daughter, Mrs. John R. White, on Brandiff street, and assisted in earning a livelihood by working at a number of places about the city. She was going to her home Sunday morning and as was her custom sought to shorten the distance by crossing the Wabash railroad yards just opposite Hoagland avenue.

Wabash freight train No. 69 had arrived from the east. A switch engine had cut off the rear section of the train and pulled it back to set off some cars, while the forward portion of the train, with its engine attached, stood in the yards opposite Hoagland avenue. Mrs. Welch did not walk around the train, but sought to cross the track by crawling beneath the car next to the end of the train. None of the trainmen saw the woman, but as she was beneath the car the engine started and the unfortunate woman was caught beneath the wheels, three sets of trucks passing over her body. Had she chosen to walk around the length of the two cars to the end of the train the accident could not have occurred, but it appears from evidence in the hands of the coroner the unfortunate woman had been in the habit of crossing the yards in this manner, and perhaps did not notice the engine attached to the train.

A switchman and Fred Moss, a resident of that vicinity, heard Mrs. Welch's screams as the wheels passed over her and hurriedly called the ambulance. She was taken to Hope hospital, but it was seen that she was frightfully mangled, and there was absolutely no hope for her recovery. She died within fifteen minutes after reaching the hospital. The wheels had passed diagonally downward over the right pelvic region, crushing the right hip and left leg, and also crushed the left leg below the knee. Coroner Barnett was summoned, viewed the remains and collected evidence concerning the accident. Mrs. Welch had $26 in money on her person and was carrying a basket of vegetables home when she lost her life. She was a native of Ireland, but had resided in this city more than forty years.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Peltier undertaking rooms, and were then taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. John Scully, at 205 Smith street.

ON TRIAL FOR CONSPIRACY.

New York, June 25.—The trial of the defendants in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company conspiracy case began today before Justice Fursman in the criminal branch of the supreme court. The indictments were found in February by a special grand jury named to inquire into the reports of a conspiracy to spread rumors to affect the price of Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock. Six men were indicted, the following four being placed on trial today: Alfred R. Goslin, Charles Thomas Davis, Eugene L. Packer and Henry Bogart. There were thirteen indictments in all. These four men were indicted for conspiracy. The other two indicted are Henry J. Alexander and Warner T. Allen, who were charged with felony. There was little delay in selecting a jury. One of the indictments against Alexander was for conspiracy and Governor Black asked Justice Fursman why Alexander was not on trial. The justice said that was for the attorney general to say. The inference was at once taken by a number of persons that Alexander has turned state's evidence.

A WINONA DUMMY

THE RESORT TRAIN WENT INTO SERVICE THIS MORNING.

EXCURSIONS OF YESTERDAY

ALL WELL PATRONIZED AND FREE FROM ACCIDENTS.

INCREASED THE SHOP FORCE

HAD TO GO TO CHICAGO FOR MECHANICS.

The Pennsylvania company placed a "dummy" in service between Warsaw and Winona this morning and it will make a round trip every half hour, if there are any passengers. The train will be hauled by engine 428, with Engineer Jerre McCarthy and Fireman H. P. Bitner in the cab, while Conductor Joseph W. Keeler will preside over the cars and collect the fares. The assembly proper does not open until next Monday, though the houses and hotel are already being filled by those who will participate in the session.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

The excursions yesterday were fairly well patronized, considering the fact that they were immediately preceded by the big excursion to Rome City of the Pittsburg shopmen. The St. Joseph Athletic club took 371 people to Benton Harbor, the Lake Erie and Western had 156 passengers out of this city for Indianapolis and brought in here from points along the line of that railway nearly 300 people, the Wabash took 140 to Toledo and ten to Put-in-Bay and the Grand Rapids and Indiana took 239 of our people to Rome City. Not a single accident occurred on any of these excursions and all were most pleasant events.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

Saturday's excursion was one of the most enjoyable of the thirteen given to the Pittsburg shopmen and had the weather been less threatening the crowd would have exceeded any previous crowd. Hereafter these excursions will be open to all employes, including officers, clerks, trainmen, engineemen, laborers in the freight house, yards and on the road and it will probably require five or six trains to handle the crowd. Heretofore only the shopmen and their families were expected to participate in the excursion, though others could do so were they so disposed.

READY TO BUILD SPUR.

The ties for extending the spur from the railway tracks east of Lafayette to the coal bins at the Bass blacksmith shop and into the yards adjacent to the machine shop were delivered this morning and it is probable that the work will be pushed rapidly forward.

HIRED MORE MEN.

Six or eight machinists from Chicago took positions in the shops of the Pennsylvania company this morning. Mechanics are scarce here and the Chicago gentlemen came in response to an advertisement in the Record. This incident indicates a very busy season in the machinists' line, particularly in Fort Wayne. The men in the Pennsylvania shops are still working overtime, with little prospect of change this summer.

BIG ABSENTEE LIST.

Nearly every department of the Pittsburg shops has a large absentee list today, due chiefly to sickness New names on the lists are C. H. Smith, H. C. C. Nees, W. Tweedy, P. E. Albers, Michael Sullivan, F. Ropa, William Lepper, A. Burchard, J. A. Nipper and E. Zorbaugh, who are sick, and J. Richards, S. B. Kleber, J. Sochreiter and W. P. Lang, who are attending to business.

NO FREE TRANSPORTATION.

The railways leading to Kansas City have decided not to issue any free transportation to that city on the occasion of the democratic convention. The railways believe that they have been sufficiently generous in making low rates and that, therefore, they cannot be expected to carry anyone free.

MORRIS HONORED.

W. H. Morris was elected president of the American Master Mechanics' association, which closed its annual meeting last Saturday evening. Mr. Morris was for several years master mechanic of the eastern division of the Wabash and had his headquarters in this city. He is now superintendent of motive power of the Chesapeake and Ohio and resides in Richmond, Va. Mr. Morris is a frequent visitor here, where relatives reside. and is interested in a real estate way in the city also. The association did not select a meeting place for next year and it is understood that the selection will not be made until a meeting of chairmen of the committees some time next winter. Other officers of the association elected Saturday are: Vice presidents, A. H. Waitman, of New York; J. A. Barr of Milwaukee, and George W. West, of Middletown, N. Y.; treasurer, A. Sinclair, of New York; secretary, J. W. Taylor, of Chicago.

DRAGGED TO DEATH.

A horrible accident occurred at Delphos, Ohio, last night. Ernest Alspach, eighteen years old, whose parents reside on a farm three miles from that city, had been on a visit to Middlepoint, and to save car fare, climbed aboard a freight train to ride home. When he reached Delphos he attempted to get off the train while it was in motion, but slipped and fell, his feet catching in the car stirrups. With his head bumping along on the end of the ties young Alspach was dragged until he was dead. When the trainmen discovered him the train was stopped and the body removed from the car and turned over to the Delphos authorities.

COTTAGERS' TRAIN SERVICE.

Next Wednesday the Grand Rapids and Indiana company will inaugurate its cottagers' train service between the Rome City resort and Fort Wayne. The train will leave this city at 5 o'clock in the evening and Rome City at 7 in the morning. Next Sunday the company will also put on another Rome City train, to be run only on Sunday. On that date and thereafter there will be two trains instead of one, leaving at 6:30 and 7:30 a. m., respectively.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The Wabash pay car will arrive here Wednesday morning.

C. B. Watterson, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is visiting friends in Chicago.

Paul Kinley, an upholsterer at the Pittsburg shops, has gone into Michigan for a week's visit.

H. S. Weirwick, storekeeper for the Wabash at Peru, has resigned. He was well known here to the railway boys.

The directors of the Lake Erie and Western will meet on Tuesday to declare a dividend on the preferred stock.

M. Wambaugh, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is off duty today to help move his household goods and family.

J. W. McCoy, foreman of the erecting department at the Wabash shops, has returned from Dunkirk, N. Y., where he visited friends a week.

George Wood and A. L. Hadley have returned, the former from Vincennes and the latter from Ada, Ohio. They are employed by the Electric company.

Ed. Deegan, the Wabash shopman, who was confined for three weeks in the company's hospital at Peru, has recovered and this morning resumed work in the shop.

General Manager Joseph Ramsey, of the Wabash, has returned to his headquarters in St. Louis, after a week in New York, conferring with other officials of the road.

Joseph Jones, foreman of the Wabash tin shop, is preparing for a visit to Moberly, Mo., his former home. He will probably set out on the journey next Thursday morning.

Charles Damon has resigned a position he held in the Wabash shops for some time. It is understood that he has been promised work in some other establishment in the city.

Nickel Plate Engineer C. H. VanGorder, who has been feeling badly for several days, has taken a vacation and will not return to work until there is an improvement in his health conditions.

H. P. Smith, of the japanning department of the Electric works, resumed his duties there this morning after an absence on account of a nuptial event, in which he was the groom.

The blind pool arrangement of the roads leading east from Chicago has been interfered with by the publication of the shipments and hereafter the public will be deprived of that bit of news.

Mrs. C. L. Hue, of Silverton, Col., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Engineer and Mrs. C. H. VanGorder. Mr. Hue was formerly a fireman on the Nickel Plate road. He is now engaged in mining.

Henry Rodenbeck, the well known blacksmith, has returned to his duties in the Bass works after an illness. He hopes to have no further trouble with the malady that confined him ten days.

Charles Rodenbeck and William Zimmerman have returned from Rome City, where they were in camp two weeks. They tell some wonderful fish stories, which are substantiated by fishermen who tried their luck in Sylvan lake yesterday. "Nothing there to catch," they say, "Rodenbeck and Zimmerman having depleted the lake of its finny inhabitants."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thiebold have returned from their wedding trip and Mr. Thiebold resumed his clerical duties in the east yard office this morning.

Two cars were derailed and the tracks slightly deranged on the street crossing of the Pittsburg yesterday. Slight delay to traffic at that point was the only damage.

Wilbur P. Collins, the master mechanic of the Monon who died last Saturday, was the inventor of the spark arrester for locomotives now used on every standard line in the country.

Ambrose Benedict, assistant foreman of the erecting department of the Pittsburg machine shop, is out on the road doing special work. This week he will be in Chicago much of the time.

Yesterday the Grand Trunk put into service a fast train between Chicago and Montreal, covering the distance in twenty-three hours, seven hours less than the former flyer consumed in making the run.

"How long does the train stop here?" the old lady asked the brakeman. "Stop here?" answered the functionary. "Four minutes. From two to two to two-two" "I wonder," mused the lady, "if that man thinks he is the whistle?"

Columbus Dispatch: "Surveys are being made for a new railroad which will provide for the Wabash its long sought entrance into Pittsburg. The new line will be built from Wheeling, and according to the plan, will run down Sawmill run."

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania lines, who was to have sailed for Europe on Wednesday, has postponed the trip until some time in July. It is thought that some big railway deals are still pending which led him to postpone his trip.

The Ladies' society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will give an ice cream social tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Koepf, corner of Mechanic and Elm streets, opposite the east end of the foot bridge leading to Swinney park.

W. M. Ruth leaves today for Chicago, after a week's visit with his father-in-law, T. C. Rogers. Mr. Ruth is a machinist and formerly worked in the Pennsylvania and the Bass shops in this city. He now resides in Pittsburg, where he holds a responsible position.

John F. Szink, Henry Dryer, T. W. Smith, E. B. Moore, Casper Lehmkuler, Al Throckmorton, C. Stenger and J. Kalliker, all employes of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, reported for duty after an absence on account of sickness. Some of the men had been ill three or four weeks.

Machinist Gus Grosh resumed his place in the Wabash shops this morning after a brief absence. William C. Tegtmeyer also reported for duty at the Wabash shops. He had been off duty on account of the death of his brother, Fred Tegtmeyer, the Pittsburg conductor, who was killed last week.

Saturday night at 6 o'clock the Clipper Bicycle works at Grand Rapids closed and 250 men were thrown out of employment. The shut down is said to be due to the trust, other manufacturers of wheels desiring to reduce the number of factories in order that the sale of their products will be greater.

Fred C. Burmeister, fifty-five years old and for the past twenty years a baggagemaster on the Lake Shore road, was incarcerated in the Ohio penitentiary last Saturday. He opened and robbed trunks to the total amount, it is alleged, of $25,000. He had a penchant for diamonds and stole only jewelry of that character. A female detective discovered the thief by making a friend of Burmeister, who gave her a diamond valued at $1,500. When arrested he admitted the thefts.

A SERMON ON INFIDELITY

REV. E. W. ALLEN ADDRESSES A LARGE AUDIENCE.

Opening Meeting of the Sunday Evening Series Successful Excellent Music.

The attendance at the Temple theater last evening at the opening meeting of the series to be given by Rev. E. W. Allen during the summer months was most gratifying and there is every indication that they will prove successful. The subject of the discourse was "Infidelity; Its Cause and Cure," and the text was a portion of the seventh chapter of John. Rev. Allen said in part:

"The word infidelity, which means untrue or unconstant, and is generally applied in a moral sense, has been used as applying to religion to express a lack of belief. There are a great many doubters, honest doubters, and with these, it is a good plan to reason. Doubt is not sin, but is an evidence of honesty which those people do not possess who will allow creeds to be stuffed down their throats and swallow them with a grimace, declaring them to be a good nostrum. The people of Christ's time were largely doubters, always questioning and doubting the things they heard. Let us consider the causes and cures of these doubts. In the first place, we are all doubters from our earliest infancy; we are always asking why? when? where? what? This spirit increases as we grow older and by our questions we gain a knowledge of the simple facts of every-day life. We live in a veritable ocean of mystery. We see things going on about us which we acept as a matter of fact, and yet we are at a loss to explain some of the simplest laws of physics.

"We often hear a man say that he is unsectarian, unbiased, impartial; that his perception is clear; but no man ever lived who possessed these characteristics, excepting Christ. A sinful person is prejudiced against truth when he comes in contact with it. The Christian religion itself is open to doubt. It is impossible to defend the tenets of the Christian religion and reason with accuracy and precision. It is not possible for me to demonstrate to you beyond a doubt that God exists; I cannot demonstrate beyond a doubt that there is a future life, for it is impossible for me to do so. If it were possible to so demonstrate, then all that would be necessary would be to chase a man down and pour into his ears arguments which he must accept. Experience and faith are the only means by which the knowledge of God and a future existence can be kept alive. Therefore, experience may be said to be a great cure for infidelity, as we understand the word with regard to the Bible. Doubt is honesty; unbelief is contempt. The method by which the existence of God is proven is by giving facts. Jesus said to Thomas, 'Come and see.' Giving the people facts should be the method employed today. There is no conflict between faith and reason. We can acept the things we see by reason, but faith must be exercised about the things unseen. There is perfect harmony between faith and reason, for where reason ceases faith begins.

"One great reason for doubt is the number of hypocrites we have in the church today. We must not doubt because of this any more than that we should lose our faith in the medical profession because there are quacks.

"I will say in conclusion that I pay no attention to the unsolved questions of the Bible. There is plenty to deal with in the many truths with which the Word abounds and it would be bootless for me to search for and puzzle over those facts, which, even if solved, would not benefit me or anyone else."

The musical program last evening was most acceptable. A men's quartet gave a selection and Miss Hariett Stemen gave the solo, "The Ninety and Nine," in a most pleasing manner. The congregation united in singing a number of gospel hymns, accompanied by a cornet and piano. There will be services in the Temple each Sunday evening during the summer.

UNITED IRISH SOCIETIES.

New York, June 25.—A closed meeting of delegates of the United Irish-American societies was held last night in this city. Reports were received from the Irish convention held in Dublin stating that its elections had received the unanimous approval of the societies in Ireland and the meeting thereupon also approved of the proceedings of the convention and pledged the United Irish-American society to give to the convention their moral and financial support all along. Resolutions condemning the deportation of the two Fenians were adopted. The meeting considered a proposition to raise a fund to help the two men to get along in Ireland, but no definite action was taken.

BEE SUPERSTITIONS.

Some English Folk Think They Know Misfortunes in Advance.

Of all the unaccountable superstitions that prevail the most unaccountable, perhaps, are those that relate to bees. Throughout the north of England, and especially in rural Yorkshire, the belief is firm that bees always know in advance when misfortunes will befall their owners. Whenever, therefore, they hum in a certain low, disconsolate fashion, the owner of the hive, if a true Northerner, has never a doubt but that disaster is at hand for him or his. If there be illness in a house, in the Yorkshire Dales, an anxious watch is always kept on the hives. One by one the members of the family will creep down the garden to see what the bees are doing. If they are found to be at work as usual, quietly gathering honey, it is held to be a sign that the patient will recover; but if they are buzzing around in a state of unrest, then it is known that there is danger, and weeping and wailing begin at once. If they seem inclined to desert their hive, that is the worst sign of all, the sign that there is no hope of recovery. If in that part of the world the owner of a beehive dies, some member of the family always goes off at once to tell the bees. The messenger kneels down at the side of the hive and whispers in at the door: "John Metcalf"—or whatever the person's name may be—"John Metcalf is dead, and I am come to tell the bees." He—or more often it is she repeats the words three times, and then hastens back to the house; for a piece of crape must be found and tied to the top of the hive before sunset. If the bees are not told of the death of their owner, with due ceremony, too, or if their badge of mourning is not hoisted at the proper time, they will all die within a month—so at least the Dalesfolk and their northern kith and kin believe firmly.

Chinese Minister's Wit.

The Chinese minister at Washington, Wu Ting Fang, has achieved a reputation for ready wit. A little while ago there was a quiet dinner, in the course of which it was up to the minister to speak. He began with a complimentary allusion to American ways, but said there are a few things about Oriental civilization superior to our own. There had been some beastly weather that week, and he turned to Willis Moore, the weather bureau chief, who sat close by. "For instance," he said, fiercely, "we in China would long ago have cut off this young man's head." It dazed the company for a minute, but they soon grasped the playful allusion to the weather maker and roundly greeted the remark.

A POPULAR MISTAKE

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion, or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect digestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when, in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results because all the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

FOR THE DEAD VETERANS.

Within a few days the G. A. R. posts of the city will receive a consignment of headstones from West Stockbridge, Mass., which will be placed on the graves of the veterans of the Mexican and civil wars in Lindenwood cemetery. Each stone is inscribed with the name of the soldier, the date of his birth and the number of his company, together with the date of his death. The stones are sent free, and the local posts of the G. A. R. defray the expenses of putting them up. On Saturday Patrick Ryan received twenty of these stones to be placed on the graves of veterans in the Catholic cemetery, where forty-seven tomb stones have already been placed.

GOLFERS WILL MEET.

A company of gentlemen who met at the Wayne club Saturday evening to discuss the matter of organizing a golf club decided to issue a call for a meeting at the rooms of the Commercial club on Wednesday evening to consider the matter further. If sufficient interest is shown the work of organization will go forward at once.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Whether Roosevelt was forced or consented will furnish a subject for discussion for many years to come

Lieutenant Governor Woodruff's announcement that he does not want the nomination for governor of New York and that he will go back to business, though he will not retire from politics at the end of his present term, is translated by the experts as meaning that he is going after Mr Platt's place in the senate the great boss having announced that he will not have it again

Just before the death of Count Muravieff some progress had been made in an effort to arrange a European agreement under which the dowager empress of China was to be deposed and the Emperor Kwang Su restored to the throne with the real power to be vested in an international council The sudden change in the St Petersburg foreign office may spoil this plan, besides which we are afraid that, when the truth comes to be known, Kwang-Su will be found quite as dead as Muravieff

Mayor Oakley "winked at policy and the people retired him There is a lesson and a warning in it for you Mayor Scherer —Journal-Gazette

The foregoing is good politics as well as good counsel for the mayor so far as it goes But—does it go as far as the next municipal election? If Mayor Scherer does not quit "winking" at policy and other flagrant violations of the law will the Journal Gazette be with the people or with the mayor? Morality in the abstract is easy to uphold The value of such support is determined only by the test The real question now however is Will the mayor heed the warning? We are glad to observe our contemporary's guns trained on the most vital position of the enemy

And still the police find it convenient to be blind to the 'old policy game" Mayor Scherer can stop the game or stop the pay of the men who ignore their sworn duty The people will have nothing short of action—determined persistent action —Journal-Gazette

That's it 'Do business' with the rogues or quit drawing pay for work that is not done Mayor Scherer can stop the "old policy game,' and the new policy game and all other forms of public gambling in this city if he puts his shoulder to the wheel, determined to serve the public and enforce the law The Journal-Gazette says he can. The Sentinel has always maintained that he can. If he does not it is because he will not. In that event the only conclusion to be deduced from the Journal-Gazette's premises is to stop the mayor's pay He draws a large salary for performing the duties of the mayoralty of Fort Wayne A large part of those duties consists of enforcing the laws When the mayor fails to enforce the laws he is 'lying down on his job" and ought to be 'docked in his pay just as is any other man in any other employment who fails to do the work he is paid to perform

The Journal-Gazette is after Mayor Scherer with a sharp stick and unless his honor sets a fast pace his organ will catch him But the Journal-Gazette knows that Mayor Scherer has never made a sincere attempt to enforce the laws since he has been in the mayor's chair. Arguing from what the mayor has done or rather what he has not done, the Journal-Gazette can have little reason to doubt that he will not enforce the laws If the Journal Gazette's present attitude on the enforcement of the laws against gambling is taken in good faith why does it not also demand that the mayor enforce the laws against some two hundred saloons that every Sunday in the year and nearly every night in the week violate the laws with impunity? The question of enforcing the laws is one that cannot be [illegible] entitled It is not possible to take one position on one law and another on some law else The mayor is not sworn merely to enforce the laws against gambling His oath requires him to enforce all the laws and he cannot elect what laws he will enforce and what laws he will not enforce without violating his solemn oath and basely breaking his sacred word of honor When the State Liquor Dealers association held their convention in Fort Wayne Mayor Scherer ceremoniously presented them the keys of the city and they still have possession of them

BRYAN'S RUNNING MATE

[Washington Times]

It begins to look very much as if the Kansas City convention will give Mr Bryan a running mate either from New York or Indiana As of old both of these states are to be the battleground, and hence the vice presidential problem is reduced to the simple question of selecting the man who can add the most strength to the ticket in New York and Indiana It seems probable that the Hon Benjamin F Shively is about the strongest democrat among the Hoosiers, That is to say more Hoosiers speak well of him than of any other democrat in their state He stands for the same principles and the same ideas as does Mr Bryan In view of this fact it is natural that the question should be asked 'Would Shively bring to the ticket outside of Indiana an element of strength which it lacked in 1896? It is generally conceded that the Hon David Bennet Hill would attract many thousands of democrats to the ticket whom he encouraged four years ago to stay at home on election day or vote for McKinley It may be that Hill does not desire the second place on the ticket Then, again it is thought that he may be quite as coy in this regard as was the Hon Theodore Roosevelt Presumably if Hill wants the nomination for vice president the New York delegation will unmistakably signify that fact by methods peculiar to the New York politicians which methods by the way fool nobody outside of the Empire state and seem to be quite effective among New Yorkers It is not doubted that Mr Bryan's wish in the premises will largely govern the action of the Kansas City convention on the vice presidency as well as the platform Personally the relations between Mr Bryan and Mr Hill have always been pleasant Mr Bryan is not known to have expressed a preference for a running mate If Hill's name should be sprung at Kansas City therefore it is fair to assume that it will be done with the full knowledge and consent of Mr Bryan Still if the Indianians should earnestly insist upon the nomination of Shively the delegates would be considerably in the dark as to Mr Bryan's choice of a running mate as it is thought that he has the situation in Indiana completely in his control Until something definite is known of Mr Bryan's wish then it will be idle though of course not altogether devoid of pleasure to speculate on the tail of the ticket to be nominated at Kansas City At this time the names of Hill and Shively seem to be the ones that most frequently suggest themselves to democratic minds.

FORTY-ONE KILLED

FEARFUL RAILWAY DISASTER ON SOUTHERN ROAD.

FLOODS WASHED OUT BRIDGE

AND TRAIN DASHED INTO THE DEADLY TRAP.

BUT ONE LIFE ABOARD SPARED

WISCONSIN EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED

Atlanta Ga, June 25 Additional reports received here today from the scene of the wreck on the Macon branch of the Southern railway at McDonough, Saturday night show that the list of dead will probably number forty-one The number of the gang of section hands on the wrecked train all of whom were killed is not known Several of the bodies have been removed from the wreckage but they have not been identified Six dead passengers were brought here today Traffic probably will be resumed today Every trainman and passenger was killed except the occupants of the Pullman car The wreck caught fire and those who were not killed when the train left the tracks were burned to death while pinned down in the wreck

LIST OF THE DEAD

Following is a list of the dead

William A Barclay conductor Atlanta

W W Bennett baggagemaster Atlanta

John Brantley fireman

Ed Byrd, fireman, colored

H R Cressman Pullman conductor

W O Ellis bridgeman Stockbridge Ga

J R Florida Nashville

J H Rhodes flagman

Robert Spencer train porter

J T Sullivan engineer

J E Wood conductor, Atlanta.

Four unidentified persons

Eight negro section hands

The train left Macon at 7 10 and was due at Atlanta at 9 45 Saturday night McDonough was reached on time At this point connection is made for Columbus Ga and here every night the Columbus train is coupled on and hauled through to Atlanta Saturday night, however for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported two hours late on account of a washout on that branch and the Macon train started for Atlanta without its Columbus connection

Heavy rains of daily occurrence for the last two weeks have swollen all streams in this part of the south and several washouts have been reported on the different roads Camp's creek which runs into the Ocmulgee was over its banks and its waters had spread to all the lowlands through which it runs A mile and a half north of McDonough the creek runs along the railroad track for some distance finally passing away under the road by a heavy stone culvert

A cloudburst broke over that section of the country at 6 o'clock Saturday night and washed out a section of the track nearly 100 feet in length Into this the train plunged The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed The passengers secure as they thought and sheltered comfortably from the inclement weather went to death without an instant's warning The train consisting of a baggage car second class coach first-class coach and a Pullman sleeper was badly wrecked by the fall A fire immediately started There was no escape as the heavy Pullman car weighted down the others, and the few alive in the sleeper were unable to render assistance to their fellow-passengers

WRECK DESTROYED BY FIRE

After hard work the occupants of the Pullman managed to get out of their car, and found themselves on the track in the pouring rain The extent of the disaster was quickly apparent Flames were already coming from that part of the wreckage not covered by the water As the wreck began to go to pieces under the destructive work of both flames and flood human bodies floated out from the mass and were carried down stream by the swift current. Flashes of lightning added to the flames of the burning train lit up the scene with fearful distinctness Flagman Quinlan, who was one of the first to get out, at once started for the nearest telegraph station, which was McDonough, and, after telling the night operator of the wreck, fell fainting to the floor. Word was quickly sent to Atlanta and Macon, but no assistance was to be had except in the latter city, as the interrupted track prevented the arrival of any train from Macon Nearly the entire population of McDonough went to the scene to render assistance, but little could be done by the rescuers, as the fire kept them at a distance

At daylight the bodies that had floated from the wreck were gathered up One body was found a mile from the wreck, and many were seen along the banks of the stream

IDENTIFIED BY LETTERS

A wreck train was started out from Atlanta at midnight but owing to the burning wreckage nothing could be done until morning A special train at 6 o'clock yesterday morning took doctors, ministers, railroad officials, and helpers to the scene, but nothing could be done save to gather up the bodies and take them to McDonough Some of the bodies were terribly burned, while others were crushed beyond recognition The only means of identification in the majority of the cases were letters and papers in the pockets of the victims

Only three women were on the train Two escaped It is presumed the other perished but the body has not been found Besides the regular crew of the train, several conductors and other employes were on their way to Atlanta to spend Sunday All were killed Conductor W A Barclay was in charge of the train

EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED

Green Bay Wis June 25—A northbound passenger train on the Chicago and Northwestern road, loaded with excursionists bound for the saengerfest in this city, collided at 10 15 o'clock Sunday morning with a freight train at Depere, five miles south of here Six persons were killed, one is missing and thirty-four were injured.

The dead

Ives Burt, Oshkosh, Wis

Kuskie Ed Fond du Lac, Wis, druggist

Lloyd George E Eden, Wis, died on the way to the hospital

Miraswa Charles Oshkosh Wis

Plank Lawrence Fond du Lac, Wis

Man resident of Oshkosh

Missing

Lawson, Ed Neenah

The accident happened just as the passenger train was pulling into the station A double-header freight was backed into a side-track to let the passenger train by, but had not cleared the main track

Those injured were nearly all in the second coach When the trains came together the first car which was a combination smoker and [illegible] through the second coach, where there was the loss of life The dead were taken out of the wreck to Depere The injured were first taken to the Depere high school which was converted into a temporary hospital and later were brought to St Vincent's hospital in this city

None of the trainmen was injured as they jumped in time to save themselves Both engines were badly damaged and two coaches were broken into kindling wood is caused by an acid poison in the blood. This poison is carried by the blood to all parts of the system, and is deposited in the nerves, muscles and joints. Rheumatism is capricious in its attacks, sometimes developing slowly, the aches and pains being almost continuous, but slight. Again the attack will be sudden and severe, making the athlete of to-day a cripple to-morrow. Rubbing with liniments and the use of other external remedies may give temporary relief, but you it is in the blood; an internal remedy only can reach it. S. S. S. antidotes, neutralizes and drives out this acid poison from the blood, tones up the nerves, strengthens the muscles and relieves swollen, painful joints. S. S. S. never fails to cure Rheumatism, either acute or chronic; is made from roots and herbs, is harmless and safe.

CAN NOT CURE RHEUMATISM FROM THE OUTSIDE;

SLAIN BY SUITOR.

A DEADLY TRAGEDY ENACTED NEAR BEDFORD.

LOVERS ENGAGE IN A DUEL

GIRL RUSHES BETWEEN THEM TO HER DEATH.

GENERAL NEWS OF INDIANA

ITEMS OF INTEREST OVER THE STATE.

Bedford, Ind., June 25.—Miss Jennie Russell, aged sixteen, daughter of William Russell, a well-to-do farmer, had a number of suitors for her hand. Two of them seemed to be favorites and an intense rivalry developed, which ended Saturday in a shooting affray. Miss Russell had started from her home in company with Bert Roberts, a highly respected young man who lives at Bono, near this city. A short distance from her home they met Oscar Jeans, the other suitor.

After exchanging a few friendly remarks the conversation grew serious. Young Jeans, remarking that it was time to settle the affair, drew a revolver from his pocket and began shooting at Roberts, who was sitting by the side of the girl. As the shots were flying promiscuously, and he saw that the girl's life was in danger, Roberts jumped from the buggy and quickly drew his own pistol and began shooting at his assailant. His first shot entered Jeans' shoulder and passed clear through, but did not disable him, and he continued firing.

In the meantime Miss Russell jumped from the buggy and ran between the young men, thinking that she would stop the bloody encounter. Instead she received a shot which was fired, it is charged, by Roberts, the bullet entering just below the heart. When the girl fell Roberts grabbed her in his arms and continued firing at his assailant till his revolver was empty. Miss Russell was taken to her home and remained unconscious for several hours, but died before noon. Roberts remained at her bedside even after death and is almost a maniac over the deplorable affair.

Jeans took a Monon train for Chicago and has not yet been arrested, but warrants are out. The funeral of Miss Russell yesterday was the largest ever known in this part of the state. The burial was in the country cemetery between Campbelisburg and Reno, not far from the scene of the duel.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—The state convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence societies in this city last week was one of the most enthusiastic and successful ever held. The sessions of the convention were at the University of Notre Dame, that has always taken an advanced and influential part in the temperance cause. Among the resolutions adopted was one praying the co-operation of every Catholic pastor in the state with the organizer of the National Union, with which the Indiana branch is affiliated, in order to start new societies in every parish. Rev. Father Doyle, a Paulist father of New York, editor of the Catholic World Magazine, and president of the National Union, gave assurance that he would send the national organizer wherever he might be wanted in this state. One of the most important steps taken was to promote in every possible way the organization of boys' societies. John Scanlon, formerly a resident of Indianapolis, but now of Ewing, Jackson county, and for many years president of Mgr. Bessonies commandery, Knights of Father Mathew, was elected state president, and John Conner, Indianapolis, secretary.

A SCARCITY OF RAIN.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—While other sections of Indiana have been reveling in rains, this county has been suffering from drought. Old inhabitants do not remember so dry a spring, and growing crops were greatly retarded. Night before last there were copious showers, but much more rain is needed. The absence of thunder storms, this season, has also been commented upon.

SIXTEEN CASES OF SMALLPOX.

Anderson, Ind., June 25.—Secretary Fairfield, of the city board of health, has made a report on the smallpox situation in this city. He says there are but sixteen cases in all in the city now, which is a decided decrease from two weeks ago, and all of them are convalescents. The new detention hospital is now in shape and three patients are there. The secretary said that now he was in a condition to stamp out the scourge, and he proposed to do it, no matter what it might cost. Joseph Etchison and Thomas Grubbs, the latter formerly an Indianapolis policeman, have been appointed special officers to see that the health law is properly enforced. Dr. Fairfield says that there is no occasion for alarm, now that the worst is past.

POPULATION OF WABASH.

Wabash, Ind., June 25.—Incomplete advices make the population of Wabash under the census of 1900 a little short of ten thousand. About 9,600 is believed to be the count.

WEAVEL IN THE WHEAT.

Butler, Ind., June 25.—The weavel has appeared in many wheat fields in this county, and wheat growers are discouraged. Many of them will turn to other crops next year.

THE WIFE ALSO DEAD.

Butler, Ind., June 25.—Mrs. William Burns is dead, the result of a collision with a Wabash passenger train some weeks ago, in which her husband was instantly killed. She was a resident here for forty years.

PIERCED HIS BRAIN.

Goshen, Ind., June 25.—Philip Bullion met with a tragic death at his home, twelve miles north of this city, Saturday. He was unloading hay and fell upon a fork, one tine piercing his brain. Mr. Bullion was an old soldier, who spent two years in the jail in this city for contempt of court, in refusing to turn over $300 on the order of Judge VanFleet. After remaining two years in custody, he was released. He was a pensioner.

THE DIVORCE WILL STAND.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—Mrs. Grace Parsons, one of the best known and most attractive women of this city, a relative of Hon. B. F. Shively, was given a divorce from Seneca B. Parsons, whom she married eight years ago; the allegations being somewhat sensational. The proceedings were had in the forenoon and in the afternoon Mr. Parsons' attorneys appeared, prepared to defend. Judge Hubbard refused a reconsideration.

CLYDE JONES CONVICTED.

Peru, Ind., June 25.—The argument in the Jones-Berger case was concluded Friday evening, then followed the instructions to the jury by Hon. William B. McClintic, one of the rising young attorneys of this city, who was appointed by Judge Cox to preside during the trial. The jury remained out during the night, and Saturday morning returned a verdict finding Clyde Jones guilty of the abduction and criminal assault, and recommending his commitment to prison under the indeterminate sentence act. General satisfaction is expressed for the finding.

Y. M. C. A. ATHLETIC CONTEST.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 25.—Secretary Jamison has received word that the state committee has finally decided to hold the Y. M. C. A. state pentathlon contest on July 9 in this city. He accordingly has secured the Athletic park for that date. The events in which teams from the Y. M. C. A. associations of the state will contest are a one-hundred-yard dash, running high jump, throwing the twelve-pound hammer, pole vault and mile run. Each association is allowed three men, and all team members must do each of the events, and the team scoring the largest number of points taking the pennant. There will also be a tennis tournament and some bicycle races, but the five events named are the only ones that count in the contest for the pennant.

The French patent law requires that a patentee should work his patent in the country within a specified time. The mere fact of exhibiting a patent at the exposition, however, will be looked upon as fulfilling this requirement.

TO SOON WITHDRAW TROOPS.

Washington, June 25.—As soon as Secretary Root returns to the city early next week final arrangements will be made for the withdrawal of as many troops as can be spared from further service in Cuba. According to reports recently received from Governor General Wood, the elections passed off quietly and without serious disorder at any point and affairs generally have become tranquil, with no indications of future trouble. In consequence of this encouraging state of affairs the officials of the war department are considering the question of a large reduction of the military force in Cuba. It has been estimated that about one-half of the troops can safely be brought home within the next few months. Nothing will be settled as to which regiments shall come until after Secretary Root returns to the city.

There is an impression, however, that the Fifth infantry, stationed principally in the department of Santiago, will be the first Cuban regiment to return to the United States and that the Eighth infantry, stationed in the same department, will follow soon after. The return of these troops to the United States will enable the war department to carry out its plan of sending regular troops from this country to the Philippines to take the places of the volunteer army, which must be brought home and discharged by June 30, 1901. Unless developments in China necessitate a change of program, the homeward movement of the volunteer troops from the Philippines will begin in the early fall and about 8,000 or 10,000 regular troops will be sent out gradually from this country to take their places.

ELECTS ITS OFFICERS.

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—At the annual meeting today of the Michigan (Bell) Telephone company, the corporation which recently absorbed nearly all the independent telephone companies in the state, the following board of managers was elected: C. E. Adams, Lowell, Mass.; Frederick A. Farrer, Boston, Mass.; Frederick A. Forbes, Detroit, Mich.; Chas. J. Glidden, Lowell, Mass.; W. J. Latta, Philadelphia; Martin Maloney, New York; Hugh McMillan, Detroit, Mich.; Chas. S. Truckerman, Boston; Thomas Sherwin, Boston; Dudley E. Waters, Grand Rapids, Mich. The board elected Chas. J. Glidden, president of the Erie telephone system, president; Chas. E. Adams and H. J. Pettingill, vice presidents; George B. Perham, secretary; Charles A. Garnt, treasurer. The treasurer's report showed gross earnings for the year of $783,300; net earnings, $148,250. Five per cent. in dividends have been declared.

ATLANTA INVITES PRESIDENT.

Washington, June 25.—A party of distinguished Georgians called on the president today and invited him to visit Atlanta on July 20, the anniversary of the battle of Peach Tree Creek, which occurred on July 20, 1864. This anniversary is to be made the occasion of the reunion of the ex-union and ex-confederate soldiers who participated in that engagement. The fact that, according to present arrangements, the president will be in Canton on that date will prevent his visiting Atlanta on the 20th. The delegation consisted of W. A. Hemphill, H. H. Cabaniss, ex-Governor Bullock, Major H. H. Smith, J. H. Averill, C. P. Hopkins, E. H. Thornton, H. W. Randolph, T. B. Sawtell and A. G. West.

NAME THE INSPECTORS.

The county commissioners this afternoon selected the inspectors for the several election precincts in Allen county. There are ninety-two precincts and as each township trustee acts as an inspector the commissioners were called upon to appoint about seventy-five inspectors, two or three trustees being candidates or related to candidates to be voted for in November. The inspectors generally are the same persons who served two years ago.

BUYS TOBACCO PLANT.

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—The Detroit plant of the Continental Tobacco company, which was recently closed down, was today purchased by Oren Scotten, in behalf of a new independent tobacco manufacturing company. The consideration was $200,000 cash. Mr. Scotten will resume business in the factory at once. The plant is that operated many years by the Daniel Scotten company, which finally sold out to the trust.

ON A BENCH WARRANT.

A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of Herman Truebenbach, who is charged with violating the fish law. The warrant fixes bond at $100 and was served by Sheriff Melching this afternoon.

DISMISSED ICE TRUST CASES.

New York, June 25.—The grand jury handed in a report to Judge McMahon in Part 1 of the general sessions this afternoon, in which they dismissed the cases of conspiracy against the officers of the American Ice company.

GUTENBERG CELEBRATION.

Mayence, June 25.—The feature of the Gutenberg celebration today was a brilliant historical procession, in which 3,000 people and 1,000 horses participated. The former were in costumes representative of literature, commerce, science and art. There were large cars in the procession, emblematic of the different epochs.

HE SAVED THE GIRL.

An Adventure With the Cannibals of the Solomon Islands.

One day, on a Solomon beach, a little girl ran to me and, before I was aware of it, placed my foot on her neck. One knows what this means well enough. In hot war it means that if a chief allows his foot to rest on the defeated one's neck the man's life is safe, but he is a slave forever, rescue or no rescue. I was puzzled at the child's action. It was soon explained. Shortly afterward down came a lot of villagers and insisted on taking the youngster. I told them what she had done. They said they did not care. Her mother was being cooked in the town, and the child should go to the ovens with her.

"Never!" I said. "What! We who have eaten betel nut together many times, to quarrel for a mere child, to whom I have granted life in your own way!" I swore they should kill me first. They replied:

"Oh, that is an easy thing to do."

A bold front was the only thing now. Luckily, I had my 16 shooter. Springing back and putting a mark on the sand with my foot, I swore I would shoot the first man who crossed it. As I said before, the natives do not care to face an armed white in the open. They knew I could answer for a dozen of them or so, and, although clubs were up and bows bent, they hesitated, as well they might, and I knew I had mastered them. Then one proposed I should buy the child fairly; they cared not to fight a friend. To this I at once agreed, and a fuss was thus avoided, and a mission ax, worth tenpence, made me a slave owner. Tell it not in Gath.—From "Among the Man Eaters," by John Caggin.

CALLED HER SON.

By Mistake She Communicated With the Wrong Institution.

A Pittsburg woman tells this story on herself: She had a son attending a preparatory school near Sing Sing. She went to New York not long ago to pay him a visit. She stopped at the Fifth Avenue hotel on her arrival, and she desired to call up the school by telephone to inform him that she would be up the following day. She asked the young man in charge of the hotel exchange to call up Sing Sing for her and get telephone No. 71. He did so, and she sat down to talk.

"Hello!" she said. "Is that Sing Sing?"

"It is."

"Well, I want 71. I'm Mrs. Highland, and I want to speak to my son."

"What number did you say, madam?"

"No. 71."

"Your son, you said?"

"Yes, my son Harry Highland."

"Hold the telephone a moment."

She waited a minute or two, and then Sing Sing said:

"Sorry, madam, but we can't allow you to talk to him over the telephone."

"What's that? Can't allow me to talk to my son? What sort of an institution is that, I'd like to know?"

"You must come here in person on a visiting day with the proper pass before you can see him."

"Indeed! Well, I'll just come up there on the next train and take him right away with me."

"No use to come, madam. He's got 3½ years to serve yet."

"To whom am I talking?"

"This is the office of the warden of Sing Sing prison."

"Oh! Ring off, please!"—Pittsburg News.

His Wayward Way

He Was Double the Age of the Girl He Loved, and It Troubled Him.

Matthew Halliday sighed. She was so wayward, so provoking, so lovable, so pretty!

But he was much too old.

Matthew came from Quaker stock in the City of Brotherly Love. He was temperamentally sedate and at 38 felt himself to be quite a Methuselah. Besides she had, so to speak, grown up at Matthew's knee, he having stood to her and her brother in loco parentis for something like 12 years—ever since Matthew's best beloved friend, Howard Joy, took his invalid wife away for a sea voyage, leaving his two children in the good care of a maiden aunt and his business affairs in the safe hands of Matthew Halliday, banker; ever since the good ship Aurora went down in a fearful gale in the West Indies.

But now the term of Matthew's self imposed guardianship was over. Howard Joy, Jr., had made a successful start in the world and was quite ready to give dear old Mat any pointers he needed about life in general.

As for Miss Evelyn Russell Joy, as she invariably and unabbreviatingly subscribed herself, whom Matthew called "Eve" or oftener "Miss Idlewild"—well, she, too, had made a successful start in life after the manner of girls. She was 19 ("Just half my age," Matthew often dismally reflected). She had charm with all its power of winning love, she was coquette to the finger tips, and she was most fair to see. Besides all this she was a little bit of an heiress, and many swains came riding by.

Matthew watched all this with a patient sort of despair. "Fool!" he called himself, with very hearty self contempt.

It was to quash a darling plan of his pretty sister's that Howard stalked into Matthew's office one morning, his brow wrinkled in a portentous frown.

"Mat," he said abruptly, "it seems to me Evelyn has been spending money like the deuce lately. Haven't you been letting her draw her interest ahead of time?"

"Sometimes she has anticipated—a little," he said slowly, "but it is no great matter."

"But it is very bad for her," said Howard, with a parental air. "You know yourself, Mat, she has no more idea of business than a butterfly. She ought to learn to live within her income. And she is becoming quite reckless about money matters and—other things."

Matthew pricked up his ears. "What other things?"

"Why, it is chiefly that playwriting fellow, Duval. He has a comedy to be brought out in New York next week, and about 20 young people here propose to make up a party for the 'first night.' Evelyn is among them. They have a rather good chaperon, as it happens, but"—

"She must not go," said Matthew.

"I thought you'd see it that way," Howard replied, with a satisfied air. "So all you have to do when she demands money for this expedition is to say 'No.' You can do this because she has overdrawn her account."

Two or three days after this visit of Howard's Miss Idlewild went down town to see Matthew in his office at the bank "on business," as she said demurely.

"Give the poor cripple a dime?" she said in her absurd way.

"Certainly," said Matthew, with grave politeness, and he took a bright new dime out of a little roll of coins fresh from the mint and handed it to her. So she looked a little disconcerted and abandoned this method of attack.

"Matthew, I am bankrupt, insolvent, forced to make an assignment," she said in a plaintive, spoiled child tone. "I want some money—a lot of money, in fact—for a very special purpose. May I have it?"

"A lot?" repeated Matthew.

"Yes, that's it; at least a hundred."

Matthew looked grave. "What is the special purpose?" he inquired, fervently hoping she would tell him all about the proposed theater party.

"That's a secret," said Miss Idlewild, with an air of mystery.

"I cannot let you have any money just now, Eve," he said gently after a pause, and as he spoke he carefully avoided her eye and stared with rapt absorption at the carpet.

"Hereafter," continued Miss Idlewild, with a grand air, "I will manage my own money matters. Then I will know just how much I have and spend it as I please without begging for it. I am of age, and I will not endure such treatment any longer."

All this she said in anger, never dreaming that long suffering Matthew would take her at her word.

"Very well," he said, and he was a little paler as he spoke. "I will take steps to this end at once. You will find I have not abused my trust."

Incensed as she was, Miss Idlewild's head drooped with something like shame at these words. Never in her life had Matthew spoken to her like this. Never before had she felt abashed and frightened in his presence. A swift sense of his fidelity and her own ingratitude rushed over her.

"Matthew!" she faltered, and she took a step forward, but he turned away.

"You will pardon me if I leave you," he said formally. "I am very busy this morning."

He held the door open for her, and with burning cheeks she hurried out, and no word was spoken by either as they parted.

Poor Matthew was cut to the heart.

Certainly she tried to make amends to him in a thousand ways. Indeed, her manner to him was so much gentler that he began to think she had guessed his secret—that she pitied him.

Matthew lived only about half a block from the Joys, and Evelyn was in the habit of running in and out of his house as if it were her own. She was a very special pet of Miss Abby, Matthew's maiden sister, who kept house for him.

Matthew went into his study one evening about 8 o'clock and closed the door, giving strict orders that he was not to be disturbed. It was about 15 minutes later, just as he had settled down for his evening's reading, when he heard the doorbell ring, then quick footsteps running down the hall, followed by a gentle tap at his door.

He did not say, "Come in," but got up, with some irritation, and opened the door.

It was Miss Idlewild in evening dress, with a frothy looking pink thing over her head and shoulders, laughing and out of breath.

"May I come in?" she said demurely.

Matthew looked at her unsmilingly, still holding on to the door.

"Abby is out," he said. "She has gone with some ladies to a lecture."

"How lively for her!" said Miss Idlewild rather quickly. Apparently she was her old self this evening.

"Did you come over here with no wrap but that flimsy thing?" asked Matthew, looking his very crossest.

"Yes, grandmother." This was what she called Matthew when he lectured her.

He had hitherto borne such gibes in patient silence, but tonight it angered him.

"I object to your addressing me in that manner," he said with an effort.

"I beg your pardon, Matthew," she said, looking a little frightened. "It was only in fun."

Then he said: "You will take cold going back. I will send for a shawl." And he rang the bell as he spoke.

"I'm going to take you home now," he said, "and I want you to wear this. Let me put it around you."

"I won't have it!" she exclaimed excitedly, tears gathering in her eyes.

"Now, Evelyn," said Matthew gravely, "that is childish. It is a winter night. You have on an indoor dress. You must put on a wrap. And probably Miss Patty and Howard are uneasy about you. Come, be reasonable."

"I will go home," said Miss Idlewild in a trembling voice, "since you are so anxious to be rid of me. But I will not need either you or the shawl."

"You will nevertheless have both on this occasion," said Matthew sternly. "And I will not discuss the matter with you any longer."

So saying, he went up to her and put the shawl around her, whether she would or not. In trying to evade him she stumbled, and he caught her, shawl and all, in his arms.

Matthew always said he completely lost his head at this moment. He forgot himself—forgot everything but that the girl he loved was in his arms at last!

"Eve," he said desperately, holding her close and all his pent up man's soul breaking its bonds, "you know that I love you!"

Then he released her quickly with an expression on his face as of one expecting the heavens to fall. But instead of falling the heavens seemed to open their golden gates to Matthew, for Miss Idlewild, all swathed as she was like an Egyptian mummy, looked up at him with wet, laughing eyes.

"It took you a long time to make up your mind, Matthew," she said plaintively.—Buffalo News.

Charles Reade's Motto.

"I propose never to guess what I can know." This motto was rigidly adhered to by the author, whose love of accuracy was so great that he spared no pains to verify every statement he desired to make in any of his novels, grudging no amount of labor which he expended in the accomplishment of this result. He was an indefatigable collector of newspaper clippings from all nations, which he carefully classified and arranged in many scrapbooks. Reports of many institutions, police gazettes, accounts of trials and accidents and manifold descriptions of all sorts were filed away for future reference. The contents of these scrapbooks were indexed with great care, and from them Charles Reade derived great satisfaction. If ever any of his statements were questioned or his facts denied, he would turn triumphantly to his classified scrapbooks and refute the objections with some positive proof contained therein.—Miss Ticknor in Truth.

The Banana.

The banana is said to have 34 times the nutritive value of the potato and 25 times that of bread. In the West Indies the natives cut the fruit into strips called "pegs," dry these in the sun and grind them into flour, out of which many excellent dishes are made. No cheaper food grows in the tropics. The plant begins bearing 14 months after being planted. It requires no cultivation and produces harvests uninterruptedly for 11 years. A few feet of ground nourishes a plant, and the space of a dooryard will grow plants enough to maintain a large family.

THE COMMON THINGS OF LIFE.

The common things of life they give
To art its highest sway:
The things that in the life we live
Are with us every day,
And never wrought the dreamer yet
Whose work true honor brings
But that his fabric's base was set
Firm on life's common things.

For these dear things to eyes that see
Not common are nor plain;
Beauty to its supreme degree
Lives in their homely grain,
And when God's sweet toned seraph band
Creation's mystery sings
It tells how sea and sky and land
Were made life's common things.
—Ripley D. Saunders in St. Louis Republic.

The punkah coolie in India is to have a season of repose. The Indian government has issued orders for the installation of electric fans in various barracks and military stations, dispensing with the half-hearted and sleepy wallah whose immemorial duty it has been to pull the string of the punkah or ceiling fan.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Cinn.

If ever luck broke in favor of the Hoosiers it was in the game played at League park yesterday with Wheeling. Time and again it appeared as if the visitors would score runs, but some lucky play would shut them off without a score. The game was won by Fort Wayne on a scratch hit by Belden. Letcher was on third base and Miller on second when Belden came to bat. Pardee hurled a swift curve at Ira, who dodged with his bat on his shoulder. The ball struck the bat and sailed over Tom Turner's head. The Wheeling infield was playing in to catch the runner at the plate and although Turner made a desperate try to catch Belden's little fly the best he could do was to miss it by six inches as Letcher and Miller sailed over the plate with the two runs that were necessary to win the game.

Harper and Pardee were pitching good ball, but the Stogies gave the big fellow very yellow support, the Hoosiers' first two runs counting on three errors without a hit being made. Harper was batted for two singles and two two-baggers in the third inning and the result was three earned runs for Wheeling. The Stogies' last run came in the eighth inning when Turner singled and scored on Pequinney's base on balls, Rothermel's out from Babb to Brashear and Harper's error. Krueger made a neat double play in the ninth and headed off a chance the Stogies had to score a run or two. Score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

On Next Saturday and Sunday the Shamrocks will play at Marion. The team will leave over the Wabash at 9:30 Saturday morning.

The Eagle Juniors defeated the East End Stars yesterday by a score of 42 to 10. Batteries—Eagle Juniors, Degitz, Schrumm and Wiggins; Stars, Becks, Smith, Carver and Lauer.

The Fort Waynes made four fast double plays in the game yesterday. This is the league record for nine innings, although the Mansfield did make four or five in a thirteen-inning game.

The Muncie Globes expect to bring a good crowd of "rooters" to pull for the Muncie boys in the game to be played between the Globes and the Shamrocks at League park on the afternoon of July 4.

Lafayette Courier: "Post A, Fort Wayne, will cross bats with Post E, Lafayette, on Saturday, June 30, at Lafayette. This will be a hot game and it will be largely attended by broken shins and noses.' Excursion rates on all railroads insures a good attendance."

Hollingsworth is playing a wonderful second base and Otto Krueger is showing up all the Inter State shortstops.

Fricken and Poole are pitted against each other in the game this afternoon. Tomorrow Swaim will pitch for Fort Wayne and Skopec for Wheeling.

The Elks defeated the Wayne Streets by a score of 30 to 11. Batteries—Elks, Wartenbe, Stinger and Kruse; Wayne Streets, Hoffman, Kesler and Gerberding.

Manager Finn has released "Bad" Bill Eagan and signed Samuel Mills, who is even older than Eagan, to play second base. Catcher Hess, the best player in the Youngstown bunch, has also been released.

A nine from the clerks' union and the Archer Printing company base ball nine played an interesting game Sunday morning, the result being a defeat for the clerks by a score of 13 to 8. Batteries—Clerks, Kleinsorg and Culdive; Archer Printing Co., Ault and Ault.

Harper was off in fielding his position yesterday. He interfered with the ball four times when it was possible that Krueger or Hollingsworth might have fielded the ball to first in time to retire the batter. Two of the attempts were on very hard hit balls, which were credited as base hits.

"Bumpus" Jones is improving and was last evening moved to the home of Manager Miller, No. 122 West Washington street, where he is being treated by Dr. M. Rosenthal. It is believed that Jones will be able to pitch when the club returns from Dayton. Meantime Swaim, Harper and Fricken will do all the work. Manager Miller says it is unnecessary to sign another pitcher.

Griffin is being thoroughly "knocked" by some of the Toledo writers. Fort Wayne players assert that when it comes to crediting errors Steve is given more than he deserves, while on phenomenal plays many of the best are overlooked by the scribes, who are determined that he shall be released by Strobel. Griffin knows the game better than any man on the Toledo team and can turn tricks that Bob Gilks doesn't remember until he has seen them turned by Griffin. He is about the best "pinch" hitter in the league.

The sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer should muzzle the space writer from Toledo, who is doing more just now to hurt the Inter State league than all the alleged rowdy ball players in the United States. A few years ago it was a Springfield correspondent who made matters appear bad for the Inter State and now it is the fellow in Toledo who writes for the Enquirer at so much per. Two-thirds of the stuff he writes is untrue and the other third might be readable in a golf column, but as base ball news it is very mushy. By the way, while the talk about rowdyism is on allow The Sentinel to say that Bob Gilks, who has heretofore always been a gentleman, has come nearer being a rowdy on the Fort Wayne grounds than any other player, not even barring "Bad" Bill Eagan.

Columbus is still kicking because the other Inter State managers did not give President Riley a winning team. If President Riley had acted for himself he could have secured players just the same as other managers. Almost every team in the league has been compelled to strengthen and the players were not secured from the other teams in the league, either. Fort Wayne secured Jones, Fricken and Harper, Toledo signed Joss, Kane and Turner, Dayton picked up Gochnauer, Burns and Wicker, New Castle nabbed Thomas, Williams, Lawrence and Cawley, Mansfield found Ames and Fox and Youngstown has half a dozen new men, none of whom played in the Inter State until this year. Fort Wayne released Jack Glasscock to Columbus. Glasscock is as good a manager as there is in the country and President Riley needed him as manager, but the Columbus scribes kicked and Glasscock went to Sioux City, where he has won about two-thirds of the games played. If Mr. Riley had followed his own judgment and signed Glasscock as manager Columbus scribes would now have a different story to tell.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, June 25.—Wheat began the new business week nervous and active with a big trade. July at the opening sold all the way from 86½c to 88c, compared with Saturday's close at 88c. The northwest was still without rain and the sun was reported still engaged in scorching what remains of the spring wheat crop. In Manitoba there was some moisture. Liverpool cables were comparatively weak and world's shipments heavy. Russian shipments were 2,000,000 and attracted some attention. Harvesting of the Kansas "bumper" crop was reported progressing under the best conditions. There was heavy profit-taking by longs, but the demand was equal to the occasion and July sold up immediately to 88½c. The market reacted rapidly to 87¼c and steadied around 88c. Northwest receipts were light. Chicago had 187 cars, 10 of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 474 cars, against 648 last week and 981 a year ago.

Later in the session the market broke heavily. The southwest favorable conditions were compared with the northwest situation as balancing matters to a degree. July declined sharply to 83¾c. A reaction followed on covering, but the close was unsteady, July 2c under Saturday at 86c.

The corn market was rather easy, but fairly active. July opened 1c to 1¼c lower at 41½c to 41¼c, rallied to 42⅛@42¼c and then eased off to 41⅝c, where the market steadied. Receipts here were 610 cars.

The market later broke with wheat to 41c, but steadied and closed 1@1⅛c under Saturday at 41½c.

Oats were strong and active, supported by northwest buying on damage to the feed crops of that section. July opened ¼c over Saturday at 25¾c and sold to 26c. Receipts here were 284 cars.

Provisions were active and weak. Hog receipts were large, the market at the yards was lower and longs were profit-takers. July pork opened at $12.50 to $12.70 and sold off to $12.35; July lard at $6.95, declining to $6.87½, and July ribs at $7.05, easing to $7.02½.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—June 85c; July, 86c; Aug., 87¼c.

Corn—June, 41⅜c; July, 41½c; Aug., 42⅛c.

Oats—June, 25¾c; July, 25¾c; Aug., 26c.

Pork—June, $12.32½; July, $12.32½; Sept., $12.52½@12.55.

Lard—June, $6.87½; July, $7.87½, Sept., $7.92½; Oct., $7.92½; Nov., $7.92½.

Ribs—June, $6.95@6.97½; July, $6.95@6.97½; Sept., $7.05.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.80; Cash S. W., $1.80; Sept., $1.56; Oct., $1.50.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, June 25.—Cattle—Receipts, 21,000, including 140 Texans; market generally 10c lower. Good to prime steers, $5.00@5.70; poor to medium, $4.40@5.00; stockers and feeders, $3.00@4.75; cows, $2.90@4.55; heifers, $3.10@4.75; canners, $2.25@2.85; bulls, $2.80@4.00; calves, $5.00@6.50; Texas grass steers, $3.65@4.20; Texas bulls, $2.75@3.40.

Hogs—Receipts today, 40,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 1,890. Market 2½@5c lower; top, $5.30. Mixed and butchers, $5.10@5.35; good to choice heavy, $5.20@5.30; rough heavy, $5.05@5.15; light, $5.05@5.30; bulk of sales, $5.20@5.30.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, June 5.—With only a few exceptions prices were lower to the extent of a large fraction at the opening of the stock exchange, losses extending to a point or over in prominent stocks in the group of Industrials, Grangers, Trunk lines and local traction stocks. Brooklyn Transit opened down ⅜, but rallied ¾. New York Central was conspicuous for a rise of ¾ and the Steel stocks were quite firm. Stock prices rallied after the opening, as has been the case of late. This advantage, however, was not long maintained, as a vigorous raid of Brooklyn Transit and Baltimore and Ohio depressed them 2⅞ and 3 points respectively. In other stocks some support was evident, notably in some of the Pacifics and other railroad stocks. The Grangers, except Rock Island, fell to the lowest and the general level of prices ruled below Saturday's close. Consolidated Gas broke 5 points.

There was some heavy liquidation in the western railroad stocks on the crop outlook. Northwest led with a fall of 2¼, while Burlington and Rock Island figured for 1½ each. Coincident with this weakness some of the steel stocks lost between 1 and 2 points. Prices got down to the lowest, Baltimore and Ohio extending its loss to 4 points and Brooklyn Transit to 3⅜. Rallies in some of the speculative leaders reached 1 to 1½, but were poorly held. The market remained unsettled and feverish.

Bonds were easier in sympathy with stocks.

THE CARS RUN IN ST. LOUIS

NO INTERFERENCE WITH THE TRAFFIC.

Busses of the Strikers Are Largely Patronized in Some Districts of the City.

St. Louis, June 25.—Cars were operated without interference today on all lines of the Transit company. Less than the usual number of cars are running, especially north and south. A majority of the passengers usually carried by these north and south lines are still patronizing the wagons and busses of the strikers, through sympathy of the men who are out or fear of the consequences of being caught riding on Transit company's cars. As the demonstrations against those who use the cars in these sections of the city become less frequent, however, the number who patronize them increases.

Both the Transit company and the union men seemed satisfied with the situation. The strikers say there are now no negotiations on foot for a settlement. They declare funds are coming in more rapidly and that the boycott is working satisfactory. On the other hand, officials of the company claim as the danger from violence decreases, the cars have more passengers and that as soon as all fear is removed the normal traffic will resume.

Coroner Lloyd today resumed the inquest over Thomas, Rine and Burkhardt, strikers, who were killed June 10.

Judge Elmer B. Adams, of the United States district court, today granted a temporary injunction in the case of W. D. Mahon and all the members of Division No. 131, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes of America, restraining them from interfering in any way with the running of mail cars over the lines of the St. Louis Transit company.

This decision was reached after listening to the arguments of counsel for the strikers and United States District Attorney Roseier and the reading of numerous affidavits submitted by both sides.

New Wrinkle in Advertising.

A new scheme of advertising was resorted to by a progressive business firm in a prosperous city in the South. The junior partner of the firm swore out a warrant for the arrest of the senior partner on the ground that he was selling goods below cost, and that the firm was constantly losing money.

The case came up in court, and the counsel for the senior partner asked for a postponement in order to have more time to prepare his case. The Judge granted the request, bail was fixed and the senior member was released. As he left the court-room the junior partner arose and exclaimed: "If he is released the sacrifice will go on!"

The news spread and the firm did a better business.

When the case was again called no plaintiff appeared and the charge was dismissed. The firm had succeeded in their object—advertisement.

IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

THE PROHIBITIONISTS TO MEET IN CHICAGO.

The Cold Water Political Party Will Be Called to Order Wednesday Afternoon.

Chicago, June 25.—Prohibitionists are beginning to arrive for the national convetion to be held on Wednesday and Thursday at the First Regiment armory and the state convention to be held tomorrow at the same place. The national meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national committee.

John G. Wooley and Hale Johnson, both of Illinois, are strong favorites for the presidential nomination. Hundreds of large campaign buttons, having upon them a picture of the former, are being distributed. It is thought that in the early balloting for nominations the Illinois delegates will be divided between Wooley and Johnson, with the understanding that the solid vote will later be thrown to the support of the candidates is owing the more strength.

The disposition among the Illinois delegates is to work for the nomination of some western man and they feel that either of the candidates from the states fill the requirements.

Those who claim to be well acquainted with the situation say Mr. Wooley will get the support of the New England states, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, Kansas and Tennessee, while Mr. Johnson will look for his strength from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, North Carolina, Virginia and Arkansas.

Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, Pa., will come before the convention with a strong following and it is believed will lead on the first ballot with fairly good chances of success. Delegates from his own state and from New Jersey, Maryland, Kentucky, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska will support his candidacy. The selection of a vice presidential nominee will depend largely upon what section of the country the presidential choice comes from. Among the candidates are:

Judge Elliott, of California; Isaac K. Funk, of New York; T. R. Caskadon, of West Virginia; Henry B. Metcalf, of Rhode Island; Walter B. Hill, of Georgia, and F. T. McWhirter and Rev. F. L. Eaton, of Des Moines.

A Modern Chinese Wall.

A modern Chinese wall, erected to keep out, not barbarians, like the ancient Mongols, but hordes of animal pests that threaten to overrun the land and bring ruin to the farmers, is now being erected in Australia and the purpose seems to be to inclose the whole colony. The first fence was built in 1897 and extended a distance of 115 miles. Since then the government has kept up the work of fence building, and the number of miles of rabbit proof fencing now erected in the colony is 17,280. The fence has been extended along the entire western border of the colony and along two-thirds of the northern boundary.

That the rabbit has become a terrible pest in Australia is well known. There is probably no other animal that supplies the markets of the world with so many skins in a year as the rabbits of Australia and New Zealand. About 6,000,000 squirrel skins of Siberia are sent to Europe annually, but in one year as many as 8,500,000 rabbit skins have been exported from Australia, and still there seems to be no abatement of the nuisance.

Mansour, the horse that ran third in the Grand Prix of Paris in 1894, is now pulling a public cab in the streets of that gay capital.

All Tired Out

Nerves unstrung, headache, wakeful nights, irritable temper, poor memory, appetite gone, digestion deranged, failing strength and despondency, mark the victim of nervous prostration. The nerves need rest, relief, nourishment. Feed them, quiet them and build up their wasted tissues with the great brain food and nerve tonic

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"I felt weak and tired out all the time, was annoyed at every little noise and when night came I could not sleep or rest. I took three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine and the tired, worried and nervous feelings were all gone, leaving me strong and well."

A WINONA DUMMY

THE RESORT TRAIN WENT INTO SERVICE THIS MORNING.

EXCURSIONS OF YESTERDAY

ALL WELL PATRONIZED AND FREE FROM ACCIDENTS.

INCREASED THE SHOP FORCE

HAD TO GO TO CHICAGO FOR MECHANICS.

The Pennsylvania company placed a "dummy" in service between Warsaw and Winona this morning and it will make a round trip every half hour, if there are any passengers. The train will be hauled by engine 428, with Engineer Jerre McCarthy and Fireman H. P. Bitner in the cab, while Conductor Joseph W. Keeler will preside over the cars and collect the fares. The assembly proper does not open until next Monday, though the houses and hotel are already being filled by those who will participate in the session.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

The excursions yesterday were fairly well patronized, considering the fact that they were immediately preceded by the big excursion to Rome City of the Pittsburg shopmen. The St. Joseph Athletic club took 371 people to Benton Harbor, the Lake Erie and Western had 156 passengers out of this city for Indianapolis and brought in here from points along the line of that railway nearly 300 people, the Wabash took 140 to Toledo and ten to Put-in-Bay and the Grand Rapids and Indiana took 239 of our people to Rome City. Not a single accident occurred on any of these excursions and all were most pleasant events.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

Saturday's excursion was one of the most enjoyable of the thirteen given to the Pittsburg shopmen and had the weather been less threatening the crowd would have exceeded any previous crowd. Hereafter these excursions will be open to all employes, including officers, clerks, trainmen, enginemeen, laborers in the freight house, yards and on the road and it will probably require five or six trains to handle the crowd. Heretofore only the shopmen and their families were expected to participate in the excursion, though others could do so were they so disposed.

READY TO BUILD SPUR.

The ties for extending the spur from the railway tracks east of Lafayette to the coal bins at the Bass blacksmith shop and into the yards adjacent to the machine shop were delivered this morning and it is probable that the work will be pushed rapidly forward.

HIRED MORE MEN.

Six or eight machinists from Chicago took positions in the shops of the Pennsylvania company this morning. Mechanics are scarce here and the Chicago gentlemen came in response to an advertisement in the Record. This incident indicates a very busy season in the machinists' line, particularly in Fort Wayne. The men in the Pennsylvania shops are still working overtime, with little prospect of change this summer.

BIG ABSENTEE LIST.

Nearly every department of the Pittsburg shops has a large absentee list today, due chiefly to sickness. New names on the lists are C. H. Smith, H. C. C. Nees, W. Tweedy, P. E. Albers, Michael Sullivan, F. Ropa, William Lepper, A. Burchard, J. A. Nipper and E. Zorbaugh, who are sick, and J. Richards, S. B. Kleber, J. Sochreiter and W. P. Lang, who are attending to business.

NO FREE TRANSPORTATION.

The railways leading to Kansas City have decided not to issue any free transportation to that city on the occasion of the democratic convention. The railways believe that they have been sufficiently generous in making low rates and that, therefore, they cannot be expected to carry anyone free.

MORRIS HONORED.

W. H. Morris was elected president of the American Master Mechanics' association, which closed its annual meeting last Saturday evening. Mr. Morris was for several years master mechanic of the eastern division of the Wabash and had his headquarters in this city. He is now superintendent of motive power of the Chesapeake and Ohio and resides in Richmond, Va. Mr. Morris is a frequent visitor here, where relatives reside, and is interested in a real estate way in the city also. The association did not select a meeting place for next year and it is understood that the selection will not be made until a meeting of chairmen of the committees some time next winter. Other officers of the association elected Saturday are: Vice presidents, A. H. Waitman, of New York; J. A. Barr of Milwaukee, and George W. West, of Middletown, N. Y.; treasurer, A. Sinclair, of New York; secretary, J. W. Taylor, of Chicago.

DRAGGED TO DEATH.

A horrible accident occurred at Delphos, Ohio, last night. Ernest Alspach, eighteen years old, whose parents reside on a farm three miles from that city, had been on a visit to Middlepoint, and to save car fare, climbed aboard a freight train to ride home. When he reached Delphos he attempted to get off the train while it was in motion, but slipped and fell, his feet catching in the car stirrups. With his head bumping along on the end of the ties young Alspach was dragged until he was dead. When the trainmen discovered him the train was stopped and the body removed from the car and turned over to the Delphos authorities.

COTTAGERS' TRAIN SERVICE.

Next Wednesday the Grand Rapids and Indiana company will inaugurate its cottagers' train service between the Rome City resort and Fort Wayne. The train will leave this city at 5 o'clock in the evening and Rome City at 7 in the morning. Next Sunday the company will also put on another Rome City train, to be run only on Sunday. On that date and thereafter there will be two trains instead of one, leaving at 6:30 and 7:30 a. m., respectively.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The Wabash pay car will arrive here Wednesday morning.

C. B. Watterson, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is visiting friends in Chicago.

Paul Kinley, an upholsterer at the Pittsburg shops, has gone into Michigan for a week's visit.

H. S. Weirwick, storekeeper for the Wabash at Peru, has resigned. He was well known here to the railway boys.

The directors of the Lake Erie and Western will meet on Tuesday to declare a dividend on the preferred stock.

M. Wambaugh, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is off duty today to help move his household goods and family.

J. W. McCoy, foreman of the erecting department at the Wabash shops, has returned from Dunkirk, N. Y., where he visited friends a week.

George Wood and A. L. Hadley have returned, the former from Vincennes and the latter from Ada, Ohio. They are employed by the Electric company.

Ed. Deegan, the Wabash shopman, who was confined for three weeks in the company's hospital at Peru, has recovered and this morning resumed work in the shop.

General Manager Joseph Ramsey, of the Wabash, has returned to his headquarters in St. Louis, after a week in New York, conferring with other officials of the road.

Joseph Jones, foreman of the Wabash tin shop, is preparing for a visit to Moberly, Mo., his former home. He will probably set out on the journey next Thursday morning.

Charles Damon has resigned a position he held in the Wabash shops for some time. It is understood that he has been promised work in some other establishment in the city.

Nickel Plate Engineer C. H. VanGorder, who has been feeling badly for several days, has taken a vacation and will not return to work until there is an improvement in his health conditions.

H. P. Smith, of the japanning department of the Electric works, resumed his duties there this morning after an absence on account of a nuptial event, in which he was the groom.

The blind pool arrangement of the roads leading east from Chicago has been interfered with by the publication of the shipments and hereafter the public will be deprived of that bit of news.

Mrs. C. L. Hue, of Silverton, Col., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Engineer and Mrs. C. H. VanGorder. Mr. Hue was formerly a fireman on the Nickel Plate road. He is now engaged in mining.

Henry Rodenbeck, the well known blacksmith, has returned to his duties in the Bass works after an illness. He hopes to have no further trouble with the malady that confined him ten days.

Charles Rodenbeck and William Zimmerman have returned from Rome City, where they were in camp two weeks. They tell some wonderful fish stories, which are substantiated by fishermen who tried their luck in Sylvan lake yesterday. "Nothing there to catch," they say, "Rodenbeck and Zimmerman having depleted the lake of its finny inhabitants."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thiebold have returned from their wedding trip and Mr. Thiebold resumed his clerical duties in the east yard office this morning.

Two cars were derailed and the tracks slightly deranged on the street crossing of the Pittsburg yesterday. Slight delay to traffic at that point was the only damage.

Wilbur P. Collins, the master mechanic of the Monon who died last Saturday, was the inventor of the spark arrester for locomotives now used on every standard line in the country.

Ambrose Benedict, assistant foreman of the erecting department of the Pittsburg machine shop, is out on the road doing special work. This week he will be in Chicago much of the time.

Yesterday the Grand Trunk put into service a fast train between Chicago and Montreal, covering the distance in twenty-three hours, seven hours less than the former flyer consumed in making the run.

"How long does the train stop here?" the old lady asked the brakeman. "Stop here?" answered the functionary. "Four minutes. From two to two to two-two." "I wonder," mused the lady, "if that man thinks he is the whistle?"

Columbus Dispatch: "Surveys are being made for a new railroad which will provide for the Wabash its long sought entrance into Pittsburg. The new line will be built from Wheeling, and according to the plan, will run down Sawmill run."

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania lines, who was to have sailed for Europe on Wednesday, has postponed the trip until some time in July. It is thought that some big railway deals are still pending which led him to postpone his trip.

The Ladies' society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will give an ice cream social tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Koepf, corner of Mechanic and Elm streets, opposite the east end of the foot bridge leading to Swinney park.

W. M. Ruth leaves today for Chicago, after a week's visit with his father-in-law, T. C. Rogers. Mr. Ruth is a machinist and formerly worked in the Pennsylvania and the Bass shops in this city. He now resides in Pittsburg, where he holds a responsible position.

John F. Szink, Henry Dryer, T. W. Smith, E. B. Moore, Casper Lehmkuler, Al Throckmorton, C. Stenger and J. Kalliker, all employes of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, reported for duty after an absence on account of sickness. Some of the men had been ill three or four weeks.

Machinist Gus Grosh resumed his place in the Wabash shops this morning after a brief absence. William C. Tegtmeyer also reported for duty at the Wabash shops. He had been off duty on account of the death of his brother, Fred Tegtmeyer, the Pittsburg conductor, who was killed last week.

Saturday night at 6 o'clock the Clipper Bicycle works at Grand Rapids closed and 250 men were thrown out of employment. The shut down is said to be due to the trust, other manufacturers of wheels desiring to reduce the number of factories in order that the sale of their products will be greater.

Fred C. Burmeister, fifty-five years old and for the past twenty years a baggagemaster on the Lake Shore road, was incarcerated in the Ohio penitentiary last Saturday. He opened and robbed trunks to the total amount, it is alleged, of $25,000. He had a penchant for diamonds and stole only jewelry of that character. A female detective discovered the thief by making a friend of Burmeister, who gave her a diamond valued at $1,500. When arrested he admitted the thefts.

A SERMON ON INFIDELITY

REV. E. W. ALLEN ADDRESSES A LARGE AUDIENCE.

Opening Meeting of the Sunday Evening Series Successful—Excellent Music.

The attendance at the Temple theater last evening at the opening meeting of the series to be given by Rev. E. W. Allen during the summer months was most gratifying and there is every indication that they will prove successful. The subject of the discourse was "Infidelity; Its Cause and Cure," and the text was a portion of the seventh chapter of John. Rev. Allen said in part:

"The word infidelity, which means untrue or unconstant, and is generally applied in a moral sense, has been used as applying to religion to express a lack of belief. There are a great many doubters, honest doubters, and with these, it is a good plan to reason. Doubt is not sin, but is an evidence of honesty which those people do not possess who will allow creeds to be stuffed down their throats and swallow them with a grimace, declaring them to be a good nostrum. The people of Christ's time were largely doubters, always questioning and doubting the things they heard. Let us consider the causes and cures of these doubts. In the first place, we are all doubters from our earliest infancy; we are always asking why? when? where? what? This spirit increases as we grow older and by our questions we gain a knowledge of the simple facts of every-day life. We live in a veritable ocean of mystery. We see things going on about us which we acept as a matter of fact, and yet we are at a loss to explain some of the simplest laws of physics.

"We often hear a man say that he is unsectarian, unbiased, impartial; that his perception is clear; but no man ever lived who possessed these characteristics, excepting Christ. A sinful person is prejudiced against truth when he comes in contact with it. The Christian religion itself is open to doubt. It is impossible to defend the tenets of the Christian religion and reason with accuracy and precision. It is not possible for me to demonstrate to you beyond a doubt that God exists; I cannot demonstrate beyond a doubt that there is a future life, for it is impossible for me to do so. If it were possible to so demonstrate, then all that would be necessary would be to chase a man down and pour into his ears arguments which he must accept. Experience and faith are the only means by which the knowledge of God and a future existence can be kept alive. Therefore, experience may be said to be a great cure for infidelity, as we understand the word with regard to the Bible. Doubt is honesty; unbelief is contempt. The method by which the existence of God is proven is by giving facts. Jesus said to Thomas, 'Come and see.' Giving the people facts should be the method employed today. There is no conflict between faith and reason. We can accept the things we see by reason, but faith must be exercised about the things unseen. There is perfect harmony between faith and reason, for where reason ceases faith begins.

"One great reason for doubt is the number of hypocrites we have in the church today. We must not doubt because of this any more than that we should lose our faith in the medical profession because there are quacks.

"I will say in conclusion that I pay no attention to the unsolved questions of the Bible. There is plenty to deal with in the many truths with which the Word abounds and it would be bootless for me to search for and puzzle over those facts, which, even if solved, would not benefit me or anyone else."

The musical program last evening was most acceptable. A men's quartet gave a selection and Miss Hariett Stemen gave the solo, "The Ninety and Nine," in a most pleasing manner. The congregation united in singing a number of gospel hymns, accompanied by a cornet and piano. There will be services in the Temple each Sunday evening during the summer.

UNITED IRISH SOCIETIES.

New York, June 25.—A closed meeting of delegates of the United Irish-American societies was held last night in this city. Reports were received from the Irish convention held in Dublin stating that its elections had received the unanimous approval of the societies in Ireland and the meeting thereupon also approved of the proceedings of the convention and pledged the United Irish-American society to give to the convention their moral and financial support all along. Resolutions condemning the deportation of the two Fenians were adopted. The meeting considered a proposition to raise a fund to help the two men to get along in Ireland, but no definite action was taken.

DROPSY FROM COFFEE.

People Beginning to Learn about the Drug.

"Coffee treated me so badly that I want to tell people about it, and if you can use my letter, I will be glad. I am not a very good scholar, but want to write a few lines, and if I don't write a good letter, I am at least honest in my statements.

"I am 45 years old and drank coffee all my life, up until New Year's. I have felt bad for years and did not know what ailed me. I thought I had the dropsy and heart disease. Sometimes I would have to press my hand against my heart, I would be in such pain and I got so I could hardly do my work. My head would feel heavy and dizzy, and many a time I have got so blind I would just have to drop down or else I would have fallen.

"I felt bad all over. My feet would swell and hurt me and I am confident if I had continued drinking coffee I wouldn't have been able by this time to do anything. A friend of mine asked me to try Postum Food Coffee and stop drinking regular coffee. I tried Postum, but it was some days before I got hold of the right way to make it. My heart disease and dropsy disappeared and I got entirely well.

"There is much in making it. That is, it has to be boiled longer than ordinary coffee, but when I got it made good, it was fine, and now I wouldn't have coffee in my house at all. I am sure the Postum Food Coffee saved my life, and I am perfectly well. Oh, how much I would like to see Postum in every home. I can't praise it enough. I send you here the names of about twenty people that have been helped by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee. (Then follows a list of names and addresses.) Hoping this will be of benefit to some one, I remain, yours truly," Mrs. Onia Sipult, 808 E. 6th St., E. Des Moines, Ia.

AN OMINOUS SILENCE

Washington Gets No Further News of the American Force Ambushed Near Tien Tsin.

THE SITUATION IS MORE DESPERATE.

Washington, June 25.—Up to 1 o'clock this afternoon no word has been received at either the war or navy departments as to the condition of affairs in China. Nor has Admiral Remey been heard from, and it is not known whether he has sailed on the Brooklyn for Taku, or is still at Cavite.

The anxiously awaited list of casualties from Admiral Kempff has not yet appeared nor has a word come as to the result of the second engagement at Tien Tsin.

The state department also is without anything to shed light upon the situation except a dispatch from United States Consul Goodnow, at Shanghai, saying that nothing reliable had been received there as to the condition of affairs at Pekin and elsewhere

This rather detracts from the reassuring unofficial press dispatches published this morning.

AMERICANS AMBUSHED.

Washington, June 25. The navy department yesterday afternoon made public the following telegram from Admiral Kempff, dated Che-Foo, June 24:

"In ambuscade near Tien Tsin, on the 21st, four of Waller's command were killed and seven wounded. Names will be furnished as soon as received. Force of 2,000 going to relieve Tien Tsin today."

This dispatch, giving the first definite news of the shedding of American blood on Chinese soil, came early in the morning and was turned over to Secretary Long as soon as he arrived at the department. With Admiral Crowninshield, the secretary carried the dispatch to the white house, where, on the president's return from church, it was laid before him. The determination thereupon was reached to order Admiral Remey, in command of the Asiatic squadron, from Manila to Taku, on board of the armored cruiser Brooklyn. The secretary and Admiral Crowninshield returned to the navy department, where the necessary orders were dispatched to Admiral Remey.

IN DESPERATE STRAITS.

London, June 25.—The position of the international forces in the section of northern China where 10,000 men are striving to keep a footing and to succor the legations in Pekin appears to increase in peril with every fresh dispatch. Pekin has not been heard from direct for fourteen days. The last dispatch was one imploring aid. Admiral Seymour's column of 2,000 was last heard from twelve days ago. At that time it was surrounded midway between Pekin and Tien Tsin. Possibly now it has reached Pekin. The 3,000 internationals at Tien Tsin were hard pressed and fighting for their lives on Thursday, and a relieving force of less than a thousand had been beaten back to Taku Friday. Observers on the spot think that 100,000 men would not be too many to grasp China firmly.

SAVED BY RUSSIANS.

New York, June 25.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Che Foo says:

The Chinese bombardment of Tien Tsin set fire to the mission buildings of the United States. The fire spread to the native city and destroyed everything. The attacking force is well supplied with modern artillery and is pressing the small allied force very hard.

Already the dead number 100. Relief is being rushed from Taku, but the column will have to fight its way through the big Chinese army.

The British storeship Humber arrived at Che Foo, bringing thirty refugees from Tongshan, including Messrs. Kinder and Parsons and Mrs. Parsons.

Pei Tai Ho (the great watering place of northern China, where 200 prominent foreigners had their summer homes) has been abandoned.

The governor of Shan Tung province, in which Che Foo is situated, after conferring with his subordinate mandarins at his capital, Tsinanfu, decided not to join the rebels and issued a proclamation decreeing that all Europeans and Americans should be protected.

Admiral Kempff held a conference Sunday at the American consulate with Consul Fowler and the captains of the Nashville and the Yorktown. The local governor of Che Foo was present and promised there should be no uprising here against the foreigners and gave other assurances which seemed all right on the surface.

The governor expressed confidence in the good will of the American government toward China and said the feeling was reciprocated.

Captain Edward Bayly, of the British armored cruiser at Taku, signalled the American captains yesterday: "Thank God the Russians were here; otherwise we would all have been murdered."

FORCES MUCH TOO SMALL.

London, June 25.—2:19 p. m.—Although the powers at last seem conscious of the magnitude of the Chinese peril and are concertedly hurrying forces to Taku, the international troops available to overcome the immediate perils of the situation are, apparently, totally inadequate. The alarm not only for the safety of Vice Admiral Seymour and his party, who are not mentioned in any of the dispatches purporting to come from Pekin, but for his base at Tien Tsin remains unrelieved.

Almost the only ray of light is the report of Sheng, the director of railroads and telegraphs, forwarded by the French consul general at Shanghai, to the effect that the legations were safe June 19 and preparing to leave the capital with the consent of the Chinese government.

But the motives of the Chinese officials in keeping the powers appeased by reassuring messages is too obvious to allow the unreserved acceptance of the statements.

Tien Tsin is so hard pressed that it must be relieved before assistance can be sent to Seymour's force. The absence of the exact dates of the last dispatch from Taku and other messages makes it difficult to connect the various stories, but some of the dispatches might be read as indicating that even the large force mentioned by Rear Admiral Kempff as about to start towards Tien Tsin has met the same fate as the combined American and Russian column which was repulsed June 21.

India is sending eight battalions of infantry, a cavalry regiment, artillery and engineers as a fighting force, besides two battalions to guard communications.

The Official Gazette, of St. Petersburg, today contains an order of the czar, as follows:

"As we consider it necessary to raise the troops in the Amuer military district to a war footing, we direct the war minister to take the requisite measures. At the same time we direct that the necessary number of reservists belonging to the Siberian Amuer military district shall be called out for active service."

FIGHTING FOR LIFE.

London, June 25.—3 p. m.—The admiralty has received the following dispatch from Rear Admiral Bruce, dated Taku, via Che Fu, June 24:

"The total force which left Tien Tsin with the commander-in-chief for Pekin was about 2,000, composed of detachments from the allied ships. No action could possibly be taken to relieve the commander-in-chief, because it was only known that he was cut off by Tien Tsin being invested.

"Tien Tsin has been fighting for its life ever since. It was on receipt of information that the Chinese army had ordered trains for attacking Tien Tsin, that they were ravaging Tong Ku and reinforcing Taku, as well as mining the mouth of the Pei Ho, that it was promptly determined to seize Taku.

"Since then every effort has been made to relieve Tien Tsin.

"I have commandeered a small coasting steamer for taking troops and sick and wounded across the bay to Wei-Hai-Wei, where I intend mak-

WILL TRY TO BOOM HILL.

Little Rock, Ark., June 25.—An effort will be made in the democratic state convention tomorrow to instruct for D. B. Hill, of New York, for vice president. The movement will be led by Representative Parker. Chairman Jones, of the national committee, is a delegate to the convention and he probably will favor an uninstructed delegation on the vice presidential question.

The warmest fight will be on national committeeman, the candidates being Congressman T. C. McRae and former Governor J. H. Clarke. Senator Jones is said to favor McRae.

Attorney General Davis will be nominated for governor by acclamation and will be present at the Kansas City convention as a delegate-at-large.

DENIED TO VISITORS.

New York, June 25.—Governor Roosevelt, at his Long Island home, denied himself today to all visitors except those having previous appointments. He said he expected to have a talk with Henry C. Payne, vice chairman of the republican national committee. Mr. Payne's mission to Cove Neck was understood to advise Governor Roosevelt of Chairman Hanna's plans for opening the campaign.

Vice Chairman Payne reached the Roosevelt residence at noon and the conference began late this afternoon. Governor Roosevelt announced that he had made up his mind not to publicly discuss any plans for the campaign until after July 12, when he is to be formally notified of his nomination for vice president.

NEELY CASE POSTPONED.

New York, June 25.—The examination of Charles F. W. Neely, which has been postponed a number of times and was set for today before United States Commissioner Shields, has been again postponed to next Friday at 10:30 a. m. The postponement was by the arrangement and mutual consent of counsel.

Assistant United States District Attorney Baldwin said today that the government would act very soon in the Neely case. According to Mr. Baldwin, when the government does act it will be in the shape of an application made by the district attorney to Judge Lacombe, of the United States circuit court, asking for Neely's removal to Havana under the special extradition act passed by congress in the last days of the session. It is understood that Neely's counsel will make no move in the matter until after the government takes some definite step for the prisoner's removal.

BOY SLIGHTLY BRUISED.

A Belt line car on Creighton avenue this morning struck a young lad, whose name could not be learned, but who very luckily escaped with some bruises which are not regarded as serious. The lad was on the railing of the bridge over Shawnee run, and as car 100 was passing the boy became frightened and jumped off between the railing and the passing car.

YAQUIS QUIT WARPATH.

Phoenix, Ari., June 25.—E. Gill, of Philadelphia, who is here from a prospecting trip in Mexico, says the Yaqui Indians have nearly all abandoned the warpath. Several hundred are still hidden in the mountains and make an occasional descent on isolated ranches. Near Tomachio on Friday last a large party raided a ranch and killed two cowboys, wounded several others and one woman. They were driven off after a hard fight.

GEN. WHEELER IN COMMAND.

Chicago, June 25.—Brig. Gen. Jos. Wheeler assumed command of the department of the lakes today, relieving Gen. James F. Wade, who will return to his former post at St. Paul to direct the affairs of the department of the Dakotas. General Wheeler expects to remain in Chicago until September 10, his sixty-fourth birthday, when he will reach the age limit and retire from active service. There were no ceremonies attendant upon the transfer.

BADLY WOUNDED AT SIBUL

FORT WAYNE SOLDIER'S CONDITION SERIOUS.

Lewis W. Jones' Name in Gen. MacArthur's List of Injured in the Philippines.

Lewis W. Jones, a Fort Wayne soldier with company C, of the Thirty-fifth United States volunteers, was seriously wounded in battle at Sibul, on the island of Luzon, June 1, and his friends in this city are anxiously waiting further news from him.

The information at hand came in General MacArthur's list of the killed and wounded, and briefly recites that Mr. Jones was wounded in the chest; condition serious. Mr. Jones is a brother of Mrs. Charles Hudson, 153 Poplar street. He is 25 years of age, and was formerly employed in the Olds Wagon works. With a number of other recruits he enlisted in this city last August and was sent to Vancouver barracks; later being sent with his regiment to the Philippines.

But a few weeks ago The Sentinel printed a letter from Private Jones, and his friends in the city this morning received another letter from the soldier, written some days before he was injured. His brother, Frank Jones, resides at Arcola.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN MEET.

Philadelphia, June 25.—The twenty-second international convention of the Knights of St. John began here today with several thousand knights in attendance. Mass was celebrated at the Cathedral, and the delegates then proceeded to Old Fellows' temple, where the convention was called to order by Charles W. Naulty. Mayor Ashbridge extended the hospitality of the city to the visiting knights. In the parade 5,000 members of the organization participated.

ALBANY MAY GO TO CHINA.

Southampton, June 25.—The United States cruiser Albany, which arrived here June 14, will sail June 26, the work on her having been accelerated. She will meet the United States steamer Scindia at Gibraltar and will transfer stores from her. It is said that the Albany's officers would not be surprised if the cruiser proceeded from Gibraltar for China.

DANGER FROM FLOODS.

Macon, Ga., June 25.—Owing to recent heavy rains the Ocmulgee river is far above the danger line here. Today the force of the water tore away a new bridge. All the streams in this section are out of their banks. Reports from all sections of the state indicate great danger to crops. Several persons have been drowned in attempting to ford swollen streams.

COTTON BROKERS FAIL.

New York, June 25.—The failure of Dennis Pointes & Co., of 123 South street, was announced on the cotton exchange soon after noon today. The failure is a small one and had little effect on the market.

NAMES FOR BATTLESHIPS.

Washington, June 25.—The secretary of the navy has authorized the following names for the new battleships and cruisers: Battleships, Virginia and Rhode Island; armored cruisers, Maryland, Colorado and South Dakota; protected cruisers, St. Louis, Milwaukee and Charleston.

FINES POLICY MEN

MAYOR ASSESSES PENALTY ON THE GAMBLERS.

FOUR OF THEM IN HIS COURT

WARRANTS ARE ISSUED FOR FOUR OTHERS.

THE MAYOR MAKES A THREAT

SAYS HE WILL FINE POLICY GAMBLERS THE LIMIT.

Jack Cummings, Thomas Burke, "Whitey" Carl and --- Horstman were arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of policy gambling preferred by Detective Coling. The gamblers employed George W. Louttit to defend them, but when it was learned that Detective Coling had the names of a score or more of witnesses they decided to make no defense and entered a plea of guilty. Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $5 and costs against each of the quartet and the fines were paid.

The mayor, in assessing the fine, told the gamblers that they would be fined the limit the next time they were arrested and brought before him for the same offense. The law allows a fine of $25 and costs, and this amount, his honor says, will be assessed should the men again be arrested for dealing out policy numbers. The quartet who paid fines this morning are in the employ of the policy game backed by local people.

While working up the cases it appears that Detective Coling had also been hunting evidence against persons interested in the Covington octopus and affidavits were sworn to this morning by Superintendent Goraline, charging Will Howey, James Butler, Samuel Lamb and Cotherell with dealing in policy numbers. Warrants were issued and the officers proceeded to make the arrests. The men will be tried Tuesday morning unless a plea of guilty is entered this afternoon.

OTHER GAMBLING.

There appears to be more or less gambling in private rooms about the city, and Saturday evening a traveling man who stopped at the Wayne hotel complained of having lost some money in a poker game. It appears that several traveling men broke into a game and one man lost $35, all he had. After he was broke the man complained and the other travelers who sat in the game with him raised a subscription to get him to his next stopping place. All inquiries failed to elicit where the game was played.

POLICE NOTES.

Two Italians employed on the intercepting sewer accumulated "jags" Sunday and started to have a high old time on Columbia street, one of them drawing a knife and threatening to slash three young men. Officer Borgman placed the Italians under arrest and this morning Mayor Scherer assessed a fine of $10 and costs against each of them.

A train climber arrested by Detective Dinger was sent to jail for eleven days and a drunk arrested by Officer Petgen was released on the plea of the man's wife and children.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNS

TAKES THE ANNUAL TWO MONTHS' VACATION.

Two or Three Cases Left Over for Trial by Special Judges

The Court News.

Saturday was the last day of the April term of the circuit court and the next term will not begin until September 3, the law requiring a two months' vacation in the summer. The circuit court cases are being tried in vacation by special judges. Judge Vesey is sitting in the case of White vs. Godfrey and John Morris, jr., is sitting as special judge in the case of Barney vs. Taft, which has not been finished.

Saturday afternoon the Good Citizens' league failed in its efforts to mandate E. V. Emrick, prosecuting attorney, who had declined to file information on affidavits furnished Emrick demanded that a jury try the mandate proceedings and the league moved that a special venire be ordered. Acting Judge Harper by representatives of the league. Mr. refused to issue the order for a special venire. In making his decision the judge said that the Good Citizens' league was cognizant weeks ago of Mr. Emrick's failure to file information and they should have made their demand before the last hours of the term of court.

NOTES.

George H. Bower was admitted by Judge Vesey to practice at the Allen county bar. Mr. Bower presented a certificate from the Monroe county bar.

In the case of Frances M. Howe vs. Benjamin W. Skelton, the Allen County Loan and Savings association and C. S. Bash, Judge Vesey rendered judgment for plaintiff against Mr. Skelton in the sum of $2,893 and in favor of the Allen Co. Loan and Savings association against Defendant Bash for $1,143.

Albert Swarts filed affidavits against the Wheeling and Fort Wayne base ball clubs in 'Squire Bullerman's court charging them with playing on Sunday for a fee and a fine of 1 cent and costs was assessed in each case.

NO NEWS OF AFRICAN WAR

AN ACCIDENT TO HAMILTON BASIS OF SENSATION.

Fell From His Horse and Broke His Collar Bone—DeWet Causing Much Trouble.

London, June 25.—3:22 p. m.—The information from South Africa continues so unimportant that the afternoon newspapers here are trying to make a sensation out of Gen. Ian Hamilton breaking his collar bone by a fall from his horse.

General Warren wires that the rebellion has been extinguished in the north of Cape Colony, but he does not mention the capture or dispersal of the considerable Boer force which has been occupying that part of the country.

Interest mostly centers in the Orange River colony, where General DeWet is causing the British much annoyance.

PHYSICIANS ARE IN SESSION.

The members of the Allen County Medical society are holding their annual banquet and midsummer session in the pavilion at Robison park this afternoon and evening. The attendance of members was large and quite a number of visiting physicians from different cities in the northern part of the state were present. The afternoon was taken up with the reading of papers and discussions, and at 5:30 super was served, to which the families of a number of the doctors sat down, as well as the physicians and visitors. The principal paper in the afternoon was one on "The Sanitary Conditions in Indiana," which was read by Dr. Hurty, secretary of the state board of health. In the evening a large number of the physicians and their families attended the performance at the theater. Among the guests from out of town are Dr. Corey, of Hartford City; Dr. W. H. Short, of Lagrange; Dr. Theodore F. Wood and Dr. W. H. Lane, of Angola; Dr. F. A. Shoemaker, of Poneto; Dr. W. F. Carson, of Huntington; Dr. D. S. Linville, of Columbia City; Dr. L. A. Spaulding, of Bluffton; Dr. L. H. Cook, of Bluffton; Dr. F. E. Mentzer, of Monroeville; Dr. G. M. Brattain, of Antwerp, O., and a number of others. Quite a number of the visiting physicians are being entertained by Dr. E. A. Bulson.

CARPET MILL BURNS.

Philadelphia, June 25.—The carpet mill of Masland & Sons was destroyed by fire today. Loss between $75,000 and $100,000.

The woman's Bible meeting of the Wayne street M. E. church will be held at the church parlors tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 4. Beginning tomorrow the lessons will include the historical parts of the Old Testament, commencing at the first chapter of Genesis. Every lady will be welcomed by Mrs. L. R. Hartman, leader.

An ice cream social will be given Tuesday evening at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. rooms under the auspices of the ladies' auxiliary.

G. A. Henry has gone for a visit with friends at Monterey, Ind. Mr. Henry made the trip on his wheel.

Miss Agnes Jamey is quite ill at her home, 85 Green street.

ANTI-IMPERIALIST

LEAGUE HOLDING A CONVENTION IN NEW YORK.

PROMINENT MEN ARE THERE

LEAGUE TO ENLARGE SCOPE OF ACTIVITIES.

A PROGRAM TO BE ADOPTED

SEEK CO-OPERATION OF MEN OUTSIDE THE LEAGUE.

New York, June 25.—Anti-imperialists from all parts of the country met this afternoon in the Plaza hotel to determine what action the followers of this line of national policy will take in the present campaign.

Among those present were Carl Schurz, ex-Governor Boutwell, Winslow Warner, Daniel F. Hoskins, jr., Henry W. Lamb, Gamaliel Bradford, Erving S. Winslow, Samuel D. Bowles, Ernest H. Crosby, C. Charles Codeman, Horace White, E. W. Ordway, J. Paulding, William Botts, Henry Bubb, Hinnard Wesch, Hon. J. B. Henderson, of Missouri; Dr. Cruffut White, Congressman Wm. H. Fleming, Senator Wellington, of Maryland; Charles B. Wilby, of Cincinnati; U. M. Rose, of Arkansas; James L. Blair, of St. Paul; Edward I. Corser, of Minneapolis, and F. W. Gooken, S. L. Paddock, Charles M. Surges, Daniel M. Lord and Edwin Burdit Smith, of Chicago.

The conference was called by the Anti-Imperialist league for the purpose of conferring with anti-imperialists outside the league. The discussion which began early in the afternoon hinged on the probable plank in the platform of the democratic party at Kansas City in relation to anti-imperialism.

WON COLLEGIATE HONORS

LEE F. HARTMAN'S SUCCESS AT WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Fort Wayne Young Man Captures Two Valued Prizes at the Connecticut Institution.

Lee F. Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lem R. Hartman, of this city, has won distinguished honors at Wesleyan university, Middletown, Conn., where he has been attending school the past few years. The good news will be particularly gratifying to the young man's numerous friends in Fort Wayne.

A telegram from the university today announces that Mr. Hartman has been awarded the Camp and the Walkley prizes two of the highest trophies at the institution. The Camp prize is for the best special examination in English literature, and the Walkley prize is awarded to the best student in psychology.

Mr. Hartman was a graduate of the Fort Wayne high school in the class of 1897 and his career at the Wesleyan university has been an unusually creditable one. He was admitted to the institution upon the diploma issued by the Fort Wayne high school, is a member of the Psi Epsilon fraternity and is editor of the Wesleyan Literary Monthly, the organ of the institution. He is now in his junior year and will return to this city next Saturday to spend his summer vacation.

New Haven, Conn., June 25.—The class day exercises at Yale were held on the campus this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, in the wooden ampitheater constructed for that purpose. There was a goodly number of auditors present, comfortably filling the structure seating 1,400 people. Many of them were from distant parts of the country, friends and relatives of the 327 members of the academic class. The exercises consisted of the singing of college songs, interspersed with reading of personal humorous history of the members of the class. As each man's name was reached in the reading he was hoisted to the shoulders of his classmates. The historians were Charleton B. Thomas, of Irvington, Ky.; Maurice P. Gould, of Waubansee, Kan.; Ashley D. Leavitt, of Melrose, Mass.; E. B. Hill, of Yonkers, N. Y., and C. H. Draper, of Hopedale, Mass. The reading of the historians was followed by the planting of the class ivy at the Chittenden library.

HOPES TO AVOID WAR.

London, June 25.—The Associated Press learns Lord Salisbury is still hopeful that the Chinese crisis will be solved without war against that country as a whole.

In spite of the alarming reports he inclines to the belief that the government of China in some satisfactory form will shortly be able to reassert itself.

He does not mean that he belittles the professions of the various viceroys who have given notice of their willingness to co-operate with the united forces.

Without committing himself to a definite view of the future, he appears averse to any scheme of territorial indemnity which, when order is restored, might be suggested by the powers who have suffered during the uprising.

The interview of the United States ambassador, Mr. Joseph H. Choate, with Lord Salisbury Saturday was due to instructions received from Secretary Hay, in which the ambassador was notified of the friendly professions of the various viceroys and was instructed to secure Lord Salisbury's views beyond casual conversation.

Mr. Choate had not mentioned the crisis in the far east until he received Secretary Hay's cable message. The ambassador discovered the British premier's views were exactly as frequently represented in these dispatchs.

He maintained the belief that the diplomats at Pekin had not been massacred and did not believe they were likely to be. He is eminently satisfied with the action already taken by the United States and expressed the same views as the cable dispatches attribute to Secretary Hay.

In short, the conference may be said not to have elicited a single point on which Lord Salisbury differed from the American attitude, and while he expressed his determination to use every endeavor to restore order in the Pei-Ho valley and extricate the diplomats, his estimate of the situation was tinged with a spirit of hopefulness that contrasted greatly with the general tone of the British press.

The ambassador did not discuss the eventual settlement and the likelihood of a partition of China, etc., and it may be reiterated that this phase of the situation has not yet been made the subject of an exchange of views between any nations. Judging from the account of what passed between Mr. Choate and Lord Salisbury and the statement recently made to the Associated Press by the foreign office, that Great Britain and the other nations, so far as the foreign office knew, were confining all their energies and deliberations solely to the present predicament, is a sincere statement of fact.

If Russia, Japan or any other power has an ulterior object in making capital out of the trouble in China Lord Salisbury does not appear to be aware of it.

SAYS MINISTERS ARE SAFE.

Paris, June 25. 11:25 a. m.—The French consul general at Shanghai, telegraphing yesterday, reported that the Chinese minister of railroads and telegraphs has informed him that all foreign ministers and foreigners at Pekin were safe last Tuesday, June 19, and were preparing to leave with the authority of the Chinese government.

WILL NOT AFFECT SHANGHAI.

New York, June 25.—Richard C. Morse, general secretary of the international committee of the Young Men's Christian association, has received a cablegram from Robert E. Lewis, representative of the committee stationed at Shanghai, dated June 23, which reads:

"War not likely to affect Shanghai. Lyon on way to Japan. Brockman on way to Shanghai."

There are four other representatives of the committee stationed in China. They are: D. Willard Lyon, at Pekin; Robert R. Gailey, Tien Tsin; F. S. Brockman, Nankin, and Walter J. Southam, Hong Kong.

Mr. Gailey is a native of Fawn Grove, Pa., and the center rush of the Princeton foot ball team in 1897. All of the five except Mr. Southam are Americans and all but him are married. Mr. Lyon's home is at Wooster, Ohio. Mr. Brockman's home is at Atlanta. Mr. Lewis comes from the University of Vermont, his home being at Berkshire, Vt.

THE INTERNATIONAL FORCES.

London, June 25.—In the house of commons today, referring to the failure of the American and Russian forces to reach Tien Tsin June 21, the parliamentary secretary of the foreign office, Mr. William St. John Broderick, said that since then British troops from Hong Kong had arrived at Taku and it was believed that three thousand Japanese, one thousand German and two thousand French troops had also arrived there. But, he added, the government had no information regarding the latter operations.

TO AUGMENT THE FRENCH.

Paris, June 25.—An official despatch received here from Saigon, the capital of French Cochin China, says the French armored cruiser Vauban and the transport Caravane have sailed north with 500 marines and a battery of artillery.

AMERICAN LABOR COLLEGE.

New York, June 25.—Its likely that the labor college in America to be endowed by British workingmen will be established in New York, not in St. Louis, as originally planned. A meeting of the presidents and secretaries of all the trades unions in the city will be held July 8, when the British delegates, with C. B. Bowerman and James A. Sexton, will outline their plans.

CHICAGO JOURNALIST DIES.

Chicago, June 25.—Martin J. Russell, one of the proprietors and editor of the Chicago Chronicle, and for many years identified with the management of Chicago newspapers, died last night at Mackinac Island from a complication of diseases.

MR. BLACK RESIGNS.

Marion Black, who for the past few months has been manager of the Wayne Cycle company on West Berry street, has resigned and will take a position as traveling salesman for a prominent computing scale house. Mr. Black has been in business in this city for a number of years, most of the time in the bicycle trade. He has a large circle of friends in the city who will regret to hear of his departure. Henry Kohlinger, of the firm of Kohlinger & Bauer, who purchased the Stearns agency from Mr. Black some time ago, will move the stock to his store on East Columbia street.

THE FARMERS' WIVES MEET

MRS. DE VILBISS, OF ALLEN COUNTY, READ A PAPER.

Officers Were Elected for the Ensuing Term—Mrs. DeVilviss' Subject Was "Common Things."

Last Saturday at Huntington the farmers' wives of Allen, Huntington, Wells, Whitley and Wabash counties held a meeting and perfected an organization to be known as "The Home-Makers' Association of Huntington and Adjoining Counties." The object of the association is the promotion of all matters which pertain to the elevation of the rural home and a meeting will be held once a year. Any farmer's wife or daughter is eligible to become a member of the association by signing the constitution. The following officers were elected:

President—Mrs. J. A. Walker, Wells county.

Vice Presidents—Mrs. William Rice, Huntington county; Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, Allen county; Mrs. Jennie Sherwood, Whitley county; Mrs. G. M. Naber, Wabash county.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Oliver Cline, Huntington.

After the introduction of the president, a general discussion on chickens and incubators was then taken up. The discussion was opened by Mrs. DeVilbiss, of Fort Wayne. She felt that almost everyone in the audience had had some experience with chickens and incubators. She stated that anyone who has an incubator must put almost all their time to its care. Others spoke on the subject, stating that they thought the use of incubators was not a success. Before the eggs are placed in the incubator the pans should be almost filled with water, as a great deal of moisture is necessary in hatching chickens. The cellar is the best place in which to keep an incubator.

"Common Things" was discussed by Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, of Fort Wayne. Mrs. DeVilbiss said she was proud and delighted to have a chance to address this assemblage on this subject. The prosperous farmer and his family are always looking into the future for some great happiness. But the only time we can ever command is the present. Yesterday is passed and tomorrow is not here yet, so we should all take care of the present. People should not worry over little things. Woman's work in the home was largely dwelt upon. Men can live and thrive without poetry, but how many have gone to wreck and ruin on account of not having a home. Women form a great part in home-making. Women should all be acquainted with the laws of health. Scientific education should be taught in the homes of the farmers. The little babies should be educated from the time they are in the cradle. Children should not be deceived, for if they are somebody is sure to pay the penalty for it in the future. Eighty per cent. of the world's greatest men were raised on the farm.

Mrs. DeVilbiss was an interesting speaker and held the closest attention during her discussion. At the meeting in January she gave several very interesting talks and all present were delighted to see her smiling face at this second gathering.

KILLED BY A MANIAC.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, June 25.—James Fitzsimmons, aged sixty-eight, was killed yesterday morning, his wife and daughter were probably fatally injured, and Joseph E. Drake, a neighbor, was terribly beaten and cut by Charles Mefford, a young plasterer, who afterward killed himself. Mefford became suddenly insane Saturday night and left home naked. Nothing was heard of him until 5 o'clock Sunday morning, when he broke into the Home for Aged Women and assaulted E. R. Andrews, the janitor. Andrew managed to pacify the maniac momentarily. He notified the police by 'phone and aroused Mr. Drake. Mefford stayed in Andrew's room long enough to put on a suit of clothes, and as he ran from the building he seized an ax. Crossing the street he jumped feet foremost through a bedroom window of Fitzsimmons' home. Drake pursued the man, but his revolver failed to act and he was struck down with the ax. Mefford ran from the building pursued by the police, and after running a mile shot himself twice, dying in the street. A peculiar feature of the tragedy is the fact that Mefford had never had any trouble with the Fitzsimmons family.

DIES FROM BITE OF A MAN.

Toledo, Ohio, June 25.—Joseph Real, a white man, died yesterday morning from lockjaw, resulting from bites received in an assault by a negro, Haley Ravelle. Ravelle was tried at the time and sent to the workhouse for thirty days. The coroner now insists that he shall be tried for manslaughter. Real's thumb was almost torn from his hand, and in the struggle he bit off his own tongue. Police officers claim that the assault was entirely unprovoked.

Among the features of the Fourth of July celebration to be given at Robison park next week will be a grand pyrotechnical exhibition. Manager Alter is making arrangements to have an expert in the business take charge of the fireworks.

The Barber Asphalt company has completed the work of paving the West Wayne street extension, and will shortly begin work on Court street.

CRAWLED BENEATH A TRAIN

FATAL ACCIDENT IN THE WABASH RAILROAD YARDS.

Mrs. Catherine Welch Attempted to Cross Track and Was Mangled by the Wheels.

Mrs. Catherine Welch, 68 years of age, was caught by a train in the Wabash yards at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and so frightfully mangled that she died soon after being taken to Hope hospital.

Mrs. Welch lived with her daughter, Mrs. John R. White, on Brandriff street, and assisted in earning a livelihood by working at a number of places about the city. She was going to her home Sunday morning and as was her custom sought to shorten the distance by crossing the Wabash railroad yards just opposite Hoagland avenue.

Wabash freight train No. 69 had arrived from the east. A switch engine had cut off the rear section of the train and pulled it back to set off some cars, while the forward portion of the train, with its engine attached, stood in the yards opposite Hoagland avenue. Mrs. Welch did not walk around the train, but sought to cross the track by crawling beneath the car next to the end of the train. None of the trainmen saw the women, but as she was beneath the car the engine started and the unfortunate woman was caught beneath the wheels, three sets of trucks passing over her body. Had she chosen to walk around the length of the two cars to the end of the train the accident could not have occurred, but it appears from evidence in the hands of the coroner the unfortunate woman had been in the habit of crossing the yards in this manner, and perhaps did not notice the engine attached to the train.

A switchman and Fred Moss, a resident of that vicinity, heard Mrs. Welch's screams as the wheels passed over her and hurriedly called the ambulance. She was taken to Hope hospital, but it was seen that she was frightfully mangled, and there was absolutely no hope for her recovery. She died within fifteen minutes after reaching the hospital. The wheels had passed diagonally downward over the right pelvic region, crushing the right hip and left leg, and also crushed the left leg below the knee. Coroner Barnett was summoned, viewed the remains and collected evidence concerning the accident. Mrs. Welch had $26 in money on her person and was carrying a basket of vegetables home when she lost her life. She was a native of Ireland, but had resided in this city more than forty years.

The remains were prepared for burial at the Peltier undertaking rooms, and were then taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. John Scully, at 205 Smith street.

ON TRIAL FOR CONSPIRACY.

New York, June 25.—The trial of the defendants in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company conspiracy case began today before Justice Fursman in the criminal branch of the supreme court. The indictments were found in February by a special grand jury named to inquire into the reports of a conspiracy to spread rumors to affect the price of Brooklyn Rapid Transit stock. Six men were indicted, the following four being placed on trial today: Alfred R. Goslin, Charles Thomas Davis, Eugene L. Packer and Henry Bogart. There were thirteen indictments in all. These four men were indicted for conspiracy. The other two indicted are Henry J. Alexander and Warner T. Allen, who were charged with felony. There was little delay in selecting a jury. One of the indictments against Alexander was for conspiracy and Governor Black asked Justice Fursman why Alexander was not on trial. The justice said that was for the attorney general to say. The inference was at once taken by a number of persons that Alexander has turned state's evidence.

BEE SUPERSTITIONS

Of all the unaccountable superstitions that prevail the most unaccountable, perhaps, are those that relate to bees. Throughout the north of England, and especially in rural Yorkshire, the belief is firm that bees always know in advance when misfortunes will befall their owners. Whenever, therefore, they hum in a certain low, disconsolate fashion, the owner of the hive, if a true Northerner, has never a doubt but that disaster is at hand for him or his. If there be illness in a house, in the Yorkshire Dales, an anxious watch is always kept on the hives. One by one the members of the family will creep down the garden to see what the bees are doing. If they are found to be at work as usual, quietly gathering honey, it is held to be a sign that the patient will recover; but if they are buzzing around in a state of unrest, then it is known that there is danger, and weeping and wailing begin at once. If they seem inclined to desert their hive that is the worst sign of all, the sign that there is no hope of recovery. If in that part of the world the owner of a beehive dies, some member of the family always goes off at once to tell the bees. The messenger kneels down at the side of the hive and whispers in at the door: "John Metcalf"—or whatever the person's name may be—"John Metcalf is dead, and I am come to tell the bees." He or more often it is she repeats the words three times, and then hastens back to the house; for a piece of crape must be found and tied to the top of the hive before sunset. If the bees are not told of the death of their owner, with due ceremony, too, or if their badge of mourning is not hoisted at the proper time, they will all die within a month; so at least the Dalesfolk and their northern kith and kin believe firmly.

Chinese Minister's Wit.

The Chinese minister at Washington, Wu Ting Fang, has achieved a reputation for ready wit. A little while ago there was a quiet dinner, in the course of which it was up to the minister to speak. He began with a complimentary allusion to American ways, but said there are a few things about Oriental civilization superior to our own. There had been some beastly weather that week, and he turned to Willis Moore, the weather bureau chief, who sat close by. "For instance," he said, fiercely, "we in China would long ago have cut off this young man's head." It dazed the company for a minute, but they soon grasped the playful allusion to the weather maker and roundly greeted the remark.

MAY GO TO CHINA.

San Francisco, June 25.—An order from Adjutant General Corbin has been received at the Presidio directing that the troops of the Sixth cavalry be recruited to their full war strength. In view of the fact that this organization was ordered recently to proceed to Manila, and the order to recruit to the limit is sent some time later, the opinion is expressed that the regiment is to be sent to China instead of the Philippines. The recruits will be selected from those now at the Presidio.

WILL MEET TONIGHT.

The executive committee of the Union Veteran Legion encampment general committee will have an important meeting this evening in the committee headquarters, Room 17, Arcade. The committee has just had a Home telephone placed in the headquarters. The number of the telephone is 156.

A POPULAR MISTAKE

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion, or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect digestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when, in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results because all the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

FOR THE DEAD VETERANS.

Within a few days the G. A. R. posts of the city will receive a consignment of headstones from West Stockbridge, Mass., which will be placed on the graves of the veterans of the Mexican and civil wars in Lindenwood cemetery. Each stone is inscribed with the name of the soldier, the date of his birth and the number of his company, together with the date of his death. The stones are sent free, and the local posts of the G. A. R. defray the expenses of putting them up. On Saturday Patrick Ryan received twenty of these stones to be placed on the graves of veterans in the Catholic cemetery, where forty-seven tomb stones have already been placed.

GOLFERS WILL MEET.

A company of gentlemen who met at the Wayne club Saturday evening to discuss the matter of organizing a golf club decided to issue a call for a meeting at the rooms of the Commercial club on Wednesday evening to consider the matter further. If sufficient interest is shown the work of organization will go forward at once.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

Whether Roosevelt was forced or consented will furnish a subject for discussion for many years to come.

Lieutenant Governor Woodruff's announcement that he does not want the nomination for governor of New York and that he will go back to business, though he will not retire from politics at the end of his present term, is translated by the experts as meaning that he is going after Mr. Platt's place in the senate, the great boss having announced that he will not have it again.

Just before the death of Count Muravieff some progress had been made in an effort to arrange a European agreement under which the dowager empress of China was to be deposed and the Emperor Kwang Su restored to the throne with the real power to be vested in an international council. The sudden change in the St. Petersburg foreign office may spoil this plan, besides which we are afraid that, when the truth comes to be known, Kwang-Su will be found quite as dead as Muravieff.

Mayor Oakley "winked" at policy and the people retired him. There is a lesson and a warning in it for you, Mayor Scherer.—Journal-Gazette.

That is good politics as well as good counsel for the mayor [illegible] at this time. But—does it go [illegible] the next municipal election? If Mayor Scherer does not quit "winking" at policy and other flagrant violations of the law, will the Journal-Gazette be with the people [illegible] the mayor? Morality in the abstract is easy to uphold. The value of its support is determined only by the test. The real question now, however, is: Will the mayor heed the warning? We are glad to observe our contemporary's guns trained on the vital position of the enemy.

And still the police find it convenient to be blind to the "old policy game." Mayor Scherer can stop the [illegible] or stop the pay of the men who [illegible] their sworn duty. The people will have nothing short of action—determined, persistent action.—Journal-Gazette.

That's it. "Do business" with the [illegible] or quit drawing pay for work that is not done. Mayor Scherer can stop the "old policy game," and the new policy game and all other forms of public gambling in this city if he puts his shoulder to the wheel, determined to serve the public and enforce the law. The Journal-Gazette says he can. The Sentinel has always maintained that he can. If he does not it is because he will not. In that event the only conclusion to be deduced from the Journal-Gazette's premises is to stop the mayor's pay. He draws a large salary for performing the duties of the mayoralty of Fort Wayne. A large part of those duties consists of enforcing the laws. When the mayor fails to enforce the laws he is "lying down on his job," and ought to be "docked" in his pay just as is any other man in any other employment who fails to do the work he is paid to perform.

The Journal-Gazette is after Mayor Scherer with a sharp stick and unless his honor sets a fast pace his organ will catch him. But the Journal-Gazette knows that Mayor Scherer has never made a sincere attempt to enforce the laws since he has been in the mayor's chair. Arguing from what the mayor has done, or rather, what he has not done, the Journal-Gazette can have little reason to doubt that he will not enforce the laws. If the Journal-Gazette's present attitude on the enforcement of the laws against gambling is taken in good faith, why does it not also demand that the mayor enforce the laws against some two hundred saloons that every Sunday in the year and nearly every night in the week violate the laws with impunity? The question of enforcing the laws is one that cannot be differentiated. It is not possible to take one position on one law and another on some law else. The mayor is not sworn merely to enforce the laws against gambling. His oath requires him to enforce all the laws, and he cannot elect what laws he will enforce and what laws he will not enforce without violating his solemn oath and basely breaking his sacred word of honor. When the State Liquor Dealers' association held their convention in Fort Wayne Mayor Scherer ceremoniously presented them the keys of the city and they still have possession of them.

BRYAN'S RUNNING MATE.

[Washington Times.]

It begins to look very much as if the Kansas City convention will give Mr. Bryan a running mate either from New York or Indiana. As of old both of these states are to be the battleground, and hence the vice presidential problem is reduced to the simple question of selecting the man who can add the most strength to the ticket in New York and Indiana. It seems probable that the Hon. Benjamin F. Shively is about the strongest democrat among the Hoosiers. That is to say, more Hoosiers speak well of him than of any other democrat in their state. He stands for the same principles and the same ideas as does Mr. Bryan. In view of this fact it is natural that the question should be asked: "Would Shively bring to the ticket outside of Indiana an element of strength which it lacked in 1896?" It is generally conceded that the Hon. David Bennet Hill would attract many thousands of democrats to the ticket whom he encouraged four years ago to stay at home on election day or vote for McKinley. It may be that Hill does not desire the second place on the ticket. Then, again, it is thought that he may be quite as coy in this regard as was the Hon. Theodore Roosevelt. Presumably, if Hill wants the nomination for vice president the New York delegation will unmistakably signify that fact by methods peculiar to the New York [illegible] which methods, by the way, [illegible] outside of the Empire state, and seem to be quite effective among New Yorkers. It is not hinted that Mr. Bryan's wish in the premises will largely govern the action of the Kansas City convention on the vice presidency as well as the platform. Personally the relations between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hill have always been pleasant. Mr. Bryan is not known to have expressed a preference for a running mate. If Hill's name should be sprung at Kansas City, therefore, it is fair to assume that it will be done with the full knowledge and consent of Mr. Bryan. Still, if the Indianians should earnestly insist upon the nomination of Shively, the delegates would be considerably in the dark as to Mr. Bryan's choice of a running mate, as it is thought that he has the situation in Indiana completely in his control. Until something definite is known of Mr. Bryan's wish, then it will be idle, though of course not altogether devoid of pleasure, to speculate on the tail of the ticket to be nominated at Kansas City. At this time the names of Hill and Shively seem to be the ones that most frequently suggest themselves to democratic minds.

FORTY-ONE KILLED

FEARFUL RAILWAY DISASTER ON SOUTHERN ROAD.

FLOODS WASHED OUT BRIDGE

AND TRAIN DASHED INTO THE DEADLY TRAP.

BUT ONE LIFE ABOARD SPARED

WISCONSIN EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED.

Atlanta, Ga., June 25. Additional reports received here today from the scene of the wreck on the Macon branch of the Southern railway at McDonough, Saturday night, show that the list of dead will probably number forty-one. The number of the gang of section hands on the wrecked train, all of whom were killed, is not known. Several of the bodies have been removed from the wreckage, but they have not been identified. Six dead passengers were brought here today. Traffic probably will be resumed today. Every trainman and passenger was killed except the occupants of the Pullman car. The wreck caught fire and those who were not killed when the train left the tracks were burned to death while pinned down in the wreck.

LIST OF THE DEAD.

Following is a list of the dead:

William A. Barclay, conductor, Atlanta.

W. W. Bennett, baggagemaster, Atlanta.

John Brantley, fireman.

Ed Byrd, fireman, colored.

H. R. Cressman, Pullman conductor.

W. O. Ellis, bridgeman, Stockbridge, Ga.

J. R. Florida, Nashville.

George W. Flournoy, Atlanta.

William Green, extra fireman.

D. Y. Griffith, supervisor.

Elder Henson, traveling man, supposed to be from Florida.

D. C. Hightower, Stockbridge.

J. H. Hunnicutt, conductor, Atlanta.

W. W. Ipark, Macon, Ga.

W. R. Lawrence, foreman extra gang.

T. E. Maddox, cotton buyer, Atlanta.

W. L. Morrisett, pump repairer.

W. J. Pate and 12-year-old son, Atlanta.

J. H. Rhodes, flagman.

Robert Spencer, train porter.

J. T. Sullivan, engineer.

J. E. Wood, conductor, Atlanta.

Four unidentified persons.

Eight negro section hands.

The train left Macon at 7.10 and was due at Atlanta at 9.45 Saturday night. McDonough was reached on time. At this point connection is made for Columbus, Ga., and here every night the Columbus train is coupled on and hauled through to Atlanta. Saturday night, however, for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported two hours late on account of a washout on that branch, and the Macon train started for Atlanta without its Columbus connection.

Heavy rains, of daily occurrence in the last two weeks, have swollen all streams in this part of the south and several washouts have been reported on the different roads. Camp's creek, which runs into the Ocmulgee, was over its banks, and its waters had spread to all the lowlands through which it runs. A mile and a half north of McDonough the creek runs along the railroad track for some distance, finally passing away under the road by a heavy stone culvert.

A cloudburst broke over that section of the country at 6 o'clock Saturday night and washed out a section of the track nearly 100 feet in length. Into this the train plunged. The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed. The passengers, secure as they thought, and sheltered comfortably from the inclement weather, went to death without an instant's warning. The train, consisting of a baggage car, second-class coach, first-class coach and a Pullman sleeper, was badly wrecked by the fall. A fire immediately started. There was no escape as the heavy Pullman car weighted down the others, and the few alive in the sleeper were unable to render assistance to their fellow-passengers.

WRECK DESTROYED BY FIRE.

After hard work the occupants of the Pullman managed to get out of their car, and found themselves on the track in the pouring rain. The extent of the disaster was quickly apparent. Flames were already coming from that part of the wreckage not covered by the water. As the wreck began to go to pieces under the destructive work of both flames and flood human bodies floated out from the mass and were carried down stream by the swift current. Flashes of lightning added to the flames of the burning train lit up the scene with fearful distinctness. Flagman Quinlan, who was one of the first to get out, at once started for the nearest telegraph station, which was McDonough, and, after telling the night operator of the wreck, fell fainting to the floor. Word was quickly sent to Atlanta and Macon, but no assistance was to be had except in the latter city, as the interrupted track prevented the arrival of any train from Macon. Nearly the entire population of McDonough went to the scene to render assistance, but little could be done by the rescuers, as the fire kept them at a distance.

At daylight the bodies that had floated from the wreck were gathered up. One body was found a mile from the wreck, and many were seen along the banks of the stream.

IDENTIFIED BY LETTERS.

A wreck train was started out from Atlanta at midnight, but owing to the burning wreckage nothing could be done until morning. A special train at 6 o'clock yesterday morning took doctors, ministers, railroad officials, and helpers to the scene, but nothing could be done save to gather up the bodies and take them to McDonough. Some of the bodies were terribly burned, while others were crushed beyond recognition. The only means of identification in the majority of the cases were letters and papers in the pockets of the victims.

Only three women were on the train. Two escaped. It is presumed the other perished, but the body has not been found. Besides the regular crew of the train, several conductors and other employes were on their way to Atlanta to spend Sunday. All were killed. Conductor W. A. Barclay was in charge of the train.

EXCURSION TRAIN WRECKED.

Green Bay, Wis., June 25.—A northbound passenger train on the Chicago and Northwestern road, loaded with excursionists bound for the saengerfest in this city, collided at 10:15 o'clock Sunday morning with a freight train at Depere, five miles south of here. Six persons were killed, one is missing and thirty-four were injured.

The dead:

Ives, Burt, Oshkosh, Wis.

Kuskie, Ed, Fond du Lac, Wis., druggist.

Lloyd, George E., Eden, Wis.; died on the way to the hospital.

Miersw[illegible], Charles, Oshkosh, Wis.

Plank, Lawrence, Fond du Lac, Wis.

Man, resident of Oshkosh.

Missing.

Lawson, Ed, Neenah.

The accident happened just as the passenger train was pulling into the station. A double-header freight was backed into a side track to let the passenger train by, but had not cleared the main track.

Those injured were nearly all in the second coach. When the trains came together the first car, which was a combination smoker and baggage, was driven through the second coach, where there was the loss of life. The dead were taken out of the wreck to Depere. The injured were first taken to the Depere high school, which was converted into a temporary hospital, and later were brought to St. Vincent's hospital in this city.

None of the trainmen was injured, as they jumped in time to save themselves. Both engines were badly damaged and two coaches were broken into kindling wood.

TO UNVEIL DEWEY CANNON

Three Oaks, Mich., June 25. The program for the ceremonies connected with the unveiling of the Dewey cannon on June 28 is substantially complete. The address of welcome on behalf of the state of Michigan will be delivered by Gen. R. A. Alger, and the oration of the day by William E. Barton, D. D., of Chicago, on the theme, "The Victories of Peace and of War." The unveiling of the Dewey cannon will be performed by Helen Miller Gould. There will be a chorus of 250 voices and a full orchestra. Miss N. Estelle Harrington is to sing the patriotic solos.

HEAVY FIRE DAMAGE.

Chicago, June 25. Fire and water early today did $60,000 worth of damage to the building and contents at 201-211 State street. The building was occupied by a number of concerns, of which the American restaurant was the heaviest sufferer, sustaining a loss of $10,000. A woman was carried down a ladder from the third story by a fireman and Michael Euret, captain of an engine company, was cut by falling glass.

STEEL PLANT RESUMES

Columbus, Ohio, June 25. The plant of the National Steel company here, which was shut down a week ago, has resumed operations with a full force. The short suspension was said to be on account of strikes in the west.

WILL CELEBRATE IRISH DAY

HIBERNIANS PREPARE TO OBSERVE AUGUST 27.

Frank S. Mullahy is the New County President—No. 1 Re-elects Old Officers.

At the meeting of the county board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians held on Sunday Frank S. Mullahy was elected president to succeed M. F. Beiger, who has held the position for the past seven years.

It was decided to celebrate "Irish Day" on the usual date, August 27, and Messrs. Samuel Errington, John J. Reed and Capt. J. E. Ford were appointed to serve as a committee on arrangements for the event. The committee will decide on a location for the celebration and report at the first meeting in July.

Division No. 1, at its annual meeting, re-elected its former officers, as follows:

Capt. John H. Rohan, president.
M. J. O'Brien, vice president.
John J. Reed, recording secretary.
Patrick Ryan, financial secretary.
Owen Cummings, treasurer.
Edward Quinn, marshal.
Jesse Patton, sergeant-at-arms.
Timothy Foley, sentinel.

SERVED THEM RIGHT.

Toledo, Ohio, June 25.—Arthur Kirke, of the Kirke Manufacturing company, and nephew of Major Kirke, and C. R. Bowman, prominent society men, and members of the Toledo Driving club, have been arrested on a warrant charging them with docking their horses' tails, and, having pleaded guilty, were fined $100 and costs each. The prosecution was by the humane society. Jethro Mitchell, another society man, is under arrest on the same charge, and a warrant is out for two other men who are both out of the city. Several well known citizens are keeping their carriage teams off the streets until the storm blows over.

WILL GO TO CHINA.

Harry Wood and "Bud" Carson, two Fort Wayne boys, are members of the Ninth United States infantry, which has been ordered from Manila to China to assist in protecting United States interests there. The Ninth regiment has been serving in the Philippines since about one year ago, and the new developments in China will largely broaden the field of its operations. Mr. Wood is a son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wood, of Grace avenue, while Mr. Carson is a son of J. K. Carson, and both are well known young men in this city.

RUSHING WORK ON SHIP.

Philadelphia, June 25. Under orders from the navy department a large force of men today began work of preparing for active service the water-carrying ship Aretheuse, which has been in reserve at League Island since the close of the Spanish-American war. The Aretheuse is to be sent to Chinese waters and officials at the League navy yard expect to have her ready within ten days. Every available part of the ship will be filled with coal as ballast and she is expected to carry about 3,500 tons to the American warships at China. Lieutenant Gill, formerly in charge of the hydrographic office in this city, who has been on sick leave, has been ordered to proceed immediately to the Asiatic station, there to report to Rear Admiral Remy.

INSANE MAN RUNS AMUCK.

New Orleans, June 25. William H. Robinson, who recently was discharged from the state insane asylum, yesterday murdered Stessel in his home. A crowd pursued him, threatening lynching, when he killed one of them, a young man named Whitaker, and shot a policeman. After running a mile he sought refuge in the parish prison, where Sheriff Klock and his men kept the crowd at bay with Winchesters until Robinson was locked up.

THE WORLD'S W. C. T. U.

Edinburgh, June 25.—The World's Woman's Christian Temperance union congress reassembled today under the presidency of Mrs. Bailey. The American delegates are greatly concerned at the serious illness of Mr. James Norton, principal of the Lake View College of Chicago, at Southampton. Lady Henry Somerset and the convention sent telegrams of inquiry and sympathy today.

RHEUMATISM ATHLETE TO-DAY CRIPPLE TO-MORROW

is caused by an acid poison in the blood. This poison is carried by the blood to all parts of the system, and is deposited in the nerves, muscles and joints. Rheumatism is capricious in its attacks, sometimes developing slowly, the aches and pains being almost continuous, but slight. Again the attack will be sudden and severe, making the athlete of today a cripple tomorrow. Rubbing with liniments and the use of other external remedies may give temporary relief, but you it is in the blood: an internal remedy only can reach it. S. S. S. antidotes, neutralizes and drives out this acid poison from the blood, tones up the nerves, strengthens the muscles and relieves swollen, painful joints. S. S. S. never fails to cure Rheumatism, either acute or chronic; is made from roots and herbs; is harmless and safe.

CAN NOT CURE RHEUMATISM FROM THE OUTSIDE;

Mr. D. S. Johnson, of Blackshear, Ga., says: "My wife was afflicted for years with Chronic Rheumatism of a very painful type. SLAIN BY SUITOR.

A DEADLY TRAGEDY ENACTED NEAR BEDFORD.

LOVERS ENGAGE IN A DUEL

GIRL RUSHES BETWEEN THEM TO HER DEATH.

GENERAL NEWS OF INDIANA

ITEMS OF INTEREST OVER THE STATE.

Bedford, Ind., June 25.—Miss Jennie Russell, aged sixteen, daughter of William Russell, a well-to-do farmer, had a number of suitors for her hand. Two of them seemed to be favorites and an intense rivalry developed, which ended Saturday in a shooting affray. Miss Russell had started from her home in company with Bert Roberts, a highly respected young man who lives at Bono, near this city. A short distance from her home they met Oscar Jeans, the other suitor.

After exchanging a few friendly remarks the conversation grew serious. Young Jeans, remarking that it was time to settle the affair, drew a revolver from his pocket and began shooting at Roberts, who was sitting by the side of the girl. As the shots were flying promiscuously, and he saw that the girl's life was in danger, Roberts jumped from the buggy and quickly drew his own pistol and began shooting at his assailant. His first shot entered Jeans' shoulder and passed clear through, but did not disable him, and he continued firing.

In the meantime Miss Russell jumped from the buggy and ran between the young men, thinking that she would stop the bloody encounter. Instead she received a shot which was fired, it is charged, by Roberts, the bullet entering just below the heart. When the girl fell Roberts grabbed her in his arms and continued firing at his assailant till his revolver was empty. Miss Russell was taken to her home and remained unconscious for several hours, but died before noon. Roberts remained at her bedside even after death and is almost a maniac over the deplorable affair.

Jeans took a Monon train for Chicago and has not yet been arrested, but warrants are out. The funeral of Miss Russell yesterday was the largest ever known in this part of the state. The burial was in the country cemetery between Campbellsburg and Reno, not far from the scene of the duel.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—The state convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence societies in this city last week was one of the most enthusiastic and successful ever held. The sessions of the convention were at the University of Notre Dame, that has always taken an advanced and influential part in the temperance cause. Among the resolutions adopted was one praying the co-operation of every Catholic pastor in the state with the organizer of the National Union, with which the Indiana branch is affiliated, in order to start new societies in every parish. Rev. Father Doyle, a Paulist father of New York, editor of the Catholic World Magazine, and president of the National Union, gave assurance that he would send the national organizer wherever he might be wanted in this state. One of the most important steps taken was to promote in every possible way the organization of boys' societies. John Scanlon, formerly a resident of Indianapolis, but now of Ewing, Jackson county, and for many years president of Mgr. Bessonies commandery, Knights of Father Mathew, was elected state president, and John Conner, Indianapolis, secretary.

A SCARCITY OF RAIN.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—While other sections of Indiana have been reveling in rains, this county has been suffering from drought. Old inhabitants do not remember so dry a spring, and growing crops were greatly retarded. Night before last there were copious showers, but much more rain is needed. The absence of thunder storms, this season, has also been commented upon.

SIXTEEN CASES OF SMALLPOX.

Anderson, Ind., June 25.—Secretary Fairfield, of the city board of health, has made a report on the smallpox situation in this city. He says there are but sixteen cases in all in the city now, which is a decided decrease from two weeks ago, and all of them are convalescents. The new detention hospital is now in shape and three patients are there. The secretary said that now he was in a condition to stamp out the scourge, and he proposed to do it, no matter what it might cost. Joseph Etchison and Thomas Grubbs, the latter formerly an Indianapolis policeman, have been appointed special officers to see that the health law is properly enforced. Dr. Fairfield says that there is no occasion for alarm, now that the worst is past.

POPULATION OF WABASH.

Wabash, Ind., June 25.—Incomplete advices make the population of Wabash under the census of 1900 a little short of ten thousand. About 9,000 is believed to be the count.

WEAVEL IN THE WHEAT.

Butler, Ind., June 25.—The weavel has appeared in many wheat fields in this county, and wheat growers are discouraged. Many of them will turn to other crops next year.

THE WIFE ALSO DEAD.

Butler, Ind., June 25.—Mrs. William Burns is dead, the result of a collision with a Wabash passenger train some weeks ago, in which her husband was instantly killed. She was a resident here for forty years.

PIERCED HIS BRAIN.

Goshen, Ind., June 25.—Philip Bullion met with a tragic death at his home, twelve miles north of this city, Saturday. He was unloading hay and fell upon a fork, one tine piercing his brain. Mr. Bullion was an old soldier, who spent two years in the jail in this city for contempt of court, in refusing to turn over $330 on the order of Judge Van-Fleet. After remaining two years in custody, he was released. He was a pensioner.

THE DIVORCE WILL STAND.

South Bend, Ind., June 25.—Mrs. Grace Parsons, one of the best known and most attractive women of this city, a relative of Hon. B. F. Shively, was given a divorce from Seneca B. Parsons, whom she married eight years ago; the allegations being somewhat sensational. The proceedings were had in the forenoon and in the afternoon Mr. Parsons' attorneys appeared, prepared to defend. Judge Hubbard refused a reconsideration.

CLYDE JONES CONVICTED.

Peru, Ind., June 25. The argument in the Jones-Berger case was concluded Friday evening, then followed the instructions to the jury by Hon. William B. McClintic, one of the rising young attorneys of this city, who was appointed by Judge Cox to preside during the trial. The jury remained out during the night, and Saturday morning returned a verdict finding Clyde Jones guilty of the abduction and criminal assault, and recommending his commitment to prison under the indeterminate sentence act. General satisfaction is expressed for the finding.

Y. M. C. A. ATHLETIC CONTEST.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 25.—Secretary Jamison has received word that the state committee has finally decided to hold the Y. M. C. A. state pentathlon contest on July 9 in this city. He accordingly has secured the Athletic park for that date. The events in which teams from the Y. M. C. A. associations of the state will contest are a one-hundred-yard dash, running high jump, throwing the twelve-pound hammer, pole vault and mile run. Each association is allowed three men, and all team members must do each of the events, and the team scoring the largest number of points taking the pennant. There will also be a tennis tournament and some bicycle races, but the five events named are the only ones that count in the contest for the pennant.

The French patent law requires that a patentee should work his patent in the country within a specified time. The mere fact of exhibiting a patent at the exposition, however, will be looked upon as fulfilling this requirement.

TO SOON WITHDRAW TROOPS.

Washington, June 25.—As soon as Secretary Root returns to the city early next week final arrangements will be made for the withdrawal of as many troops as can be spared from further service in Cuba. According to reports recently received from Governor General Wood, the elections passed off quietly and without serious disorder at any point and affairs generally have become tranquil, with no indications of future trouble. In consequence of this encouraging state of affairs the officials of the war department are considering the question of a large reduction of the military force in Cuba. It has been estimated that about one-half of the troops can safely be brought home within the next few months. Nothing will be settled as to which regiments shall come until after Secretary Root returns to the city.

There is an impression, however, that the Fifth infantry, stationed principally in the department of Santiago, will be the first Cuban regiment to return to the United States and that the Eighth infantry, stationed in the same department, will follow soon after. The return of these troops to the United States will enable the war department to carry out its plan of sending regular troops from this country to the Philippines to take the places of the volunteer army, which must be brought home and discharged by June 30, 1901. Unless developments in China necessitate a change of program, the homeward movement of the volunteer troops from the Philippines will begin in the early fall and about 8,000 or 10,000 regular troops will be sent out gradually from this country to take their places.

ELECTS ITS OFFICERS.

Detroit, Mich., June 25. At the annual meeting today of the Michigan (Bell) Telephone company, the corporation which recently absorbed nearly all the independent telephone companies in the state, the following board of managers was elected: C. E. Adams, Lowell, Mass.; Frederick A. Farrer, Boston, Mass.; Frederick A. Forbes, Detroit, Mich.; Chas. J. Glidden, Lowell, Mass.; W. J. Latta, Philadelphia; Martin Maloney, New York; Hugh McMillan, Detroit, Mich.; Chas. S. Truckerman, Boston; Thomas Sherwin, Boston; Dudley E. Waters, Grand Rapids, Mich. The board elected Chas. J. Glidden, president of the Erie telephone system, president; Chas. E. Adams and H. J. Pettingill, vice presidents; George B. Perham, secretary; Charles A. Garnt, treasurer. The treasurer's report showed gross earnings for the year of $783,300; net earnings, $146,250. Five per cent. in dividends have been declared.

ATLANTA INVITES PRESIDENT.

Washington, June 25.—A party of distinguished Georgians called on the president today and invited him to visit Atlanta on July 20, the anniversary of the battle of Peach Tree Creek, which occurred on July 20, 1864. This anniversary is to be made the occasion of the reunion of the ex-union and ex confederate soldiers who participated in that engagement. The fact that, according to present arrangements, the president will be in Canton on that date will prevent his visiting Atlanta on the 20th. The delegation consisted of W. A. Hemphill, H. H. Cabaniss, ex-Governor Bullock, Major H. H. Smith, J. H. Averill, C. P. Hopkins, E. H. Thornton, H. W. Randolph, T. P. Sawtell and A. G. West.

NAME THE INSPECTORS.

The county commissioners this afternoon selected the inspectors for the several election precincts in Allen county. There are ninety-two precincts and as each township trustee acts as an inspector the commissioners were called upon to appoint about seventy-five inspectors, two or three trustees being candidates or related to candidates to be voted for in November. The inspectors generally are the same persons who served two years ago.

BUYS TOBACCO PLANT.

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—The Detroit plant of the Continental Tobacco company, which was recently closed down, was today purchased by Oren Scotten, in behalf of a new independent tobacco manufacturing company. The consideration was $200,000 cash. Mr. Scotten will resume business in the factory at once. The plant is that operated many years by the Daniel Scotten company, which finally sold out to the trust.

ON A BENCH WARRANT.

A bench warrant has been issued for the arrest of Herman Truebenbach, who is charged with violating the fish law. The warrant fixes bond at $100 and was served by Sheriff Melching this afternoon.

DISMISSED ICE TRUST CASES.

New York, June 25. The grand jury handed in a report to Judge McMahon in Part 1 of the general sessions this afternoon, in which they dismissed the cases of conspiracy against the officers of the American Ice company.

GUTENBERG CELEBRATION.

Mayence, June 25.—The feature of the Gutenberg celebration today was a brilliant historical procession, in which 3,000 people and 1,000 horses participated. The former were in costumes representative of literature, commerce, science and art. There were large cars in the procession, emblematic of the different epochs.

LOCAL LINES.

Master Joseph and Miss Bertha Eyanskie, of West DeWald street, are visiting the grandparents at Garrett.

James G. Baals, of Ashland, Ky., is in the city the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. R. Baals, of 302 West Jefferson street.

Mrs. J. D. Eyanskie has gone to Lima, Ohio, to spend a few days with her husband, who is a machinist in the Lake Erie and Western shops.

HE SAVED THE GIRL.

An Adventure With the Cannibals of the Solomon Islands.

One day, on a Solomon beach, a little girl ran to me and, before I was aware of it, placed my foot on her neck. One knows what this means well enough. In fact what it means is that if a chief allows his foot to rest on the defeated one's neck the man's life is safe, but he is a slave forever, rescue or no rescue. I was puzzled at the child's action. It was soon explained. Shortly afterward down came a lot of villagers and insisted on taking the youngster. I told them what she had done. They said they did not care. Her mother was being cooked in the town, and the child should go to the ovens with her.

"Never!" I said. "What! We who have eaten food together many times, to quarrel for a mere child, to whom I have granted life in your own way?" I swore they should kill me first. They replied:

"Oh, that is an easy thing to do."

A bold front was the only thing now. Luckily I had my 16 shooter. Springing back and putting a mark on the sand with my foot, I swore I would shoot the first man who crossed it. As I said before the natives do not care to face an armed white in the open. They knew I could answer for a dozen of them or so, and, although clubs were up and bows bent, they hesitated, as well they might, and I knew I had mastered them. Then one proposed I should buy the child fairly; they cared not to fight a friend. To this I at once agreed, and a muss was thus avoided and a mission ax, worth tenpence, made me a slave owner. CALLED HER SON.

By Mistake She Communicated With the Wrong Institution.

A Pittsburg woman tells this story on herself. She had a son attending a preparatory school near Sing Sing. She went to New York not long ago to pay him a visit. She stopped at the Fifth Avenue hotel on her arrival, and she desired to call up the school by telephone to inform him that she would be up the following day. She asked the young man in charge of the hotel exchange to call up Sing Sing for her and get telephone No. 71. He did so, and she sat down to talk.

"Hello!" she said. "Is that Sing Sing?"

"It is."

"Well, I want 71. I'm Mrs. Highland, and I want to speak to my son."

"What number did you say, madam?"

"No. 71."

"Your son, you said?"

"Yes, my son, Harry Highland."

"Hold the telephone a moment."

She waited a minute or two, and then Sing Sing said:

"Sorry, madam, but we can't allow you to talk to him over the telephone."

"What's that? Can't allow me to talk to my son? What sort of an institution is that, I'd like to know?"

"You must come here in person on a visiting day with the proper pass before you can see him."

"Indeed! Well, I'll just come up there on the next train and take him right away with me."

"No use to come, madam. He's got 20 years to serve yet."

"To whom am I talking?"

"This is the office of the warden of Sing Sing prison."

"Oh! Ring off, please!"—Pittsburg News.

His Wayward Way

He Was Double the Age of the Girl He Loved, and It Troubled Him.

Matthew Halliday sighed. She was so wayward, so provoking, so lovable, so pretty!

But he was much too old.

Matthew came from Quaker stock in the City of Brotherly Love. He was temperamentally sedate and at 38 felt himself to be quite a Methuselah. Besides she had, so to speak, grown up at Matthew's knee, he having stood to her and her brother in loco parentis for something like 12 years—ever since Matthew's best beloved friend, Howard Joy, took his invalid wife away for a sea voyage, leaving his two children in the good care of a maiden aunt and his business affairs in the safe hands of Matthew Halliday, banker; ever since the good ship Aurora went down in a fearful gale in the West Indies.

But now the term of Matthew's self imposed guardianship was over. Howard Joy, Jr., had made a successful start in the world and was quite ready to give dear old Mat any pointers he needed about life in general.

As for Miss Evelyn Russell Joy, as she invariably and unabbreviatingly subscribed herself, whom Matthew called "Eve" or oftener "Miss Idlewild"—well, she, too, had made a successful start in life after the manner of girls. She was 19 ("Just half my age," Matthew often dismally reflected). She had charm with all its power of winning love, she was coquette to the finger tips, and she was most fair to see. Besides all this she was a little bit of an heiress, and many swains came riding by.

Matthew watched all this with a patient sort of despair. "Fool!" he called himself, with very hearty self contempt.

It was to quash a darling plan of his pretty sister's that Howard stalked into Matthew's office one morning, his brow wrinkled in a portentous frown.

"Mat," he said abruptly, "it seems to me Evelyn has been spending money like the deuce lately. Haven't you been letting her draw her interest ahead of time?"

"Sometimes she has anticipated a little," he said slowly, "but it is no great matter."

"But it is very bad for her," said Howard, with a parental air. "You know yourself, Mat, she has no more idea of business than a butterfly. She ought to learn to live within her income. And she is becoming quite reckless about money matters and—other things."

Matthew pricked up his ears. "What other things?"

"Why, it is chiefly that playwriting fellow, Duval. He has a comedy to be brought out in New York next week, and about 20 young people here propose to make up a party for the 'first night.' Evelyn is among them. They have a rather good chaperon, as it happens, but"—

"She must not go," said Matthew.

"I thought you'd see it that way," Howard replied, with a satisfied air. "So all you have to do when she demands money for this expedition is to say 'No.' You can do this because she has overdrawn her account."

Two or three days after this visit of Howard's Miss Idlewild went down town to see Matthew in his office at the bank "on business," as she said demurely.

"Give the poor cripple a dime!" she said in her absurd way.

"Certainly," said Matthew, with grave politeness, and he took a bright new dime out of a little roll of coins fresh from the mint and handed it to her. So she looked a little disconcerted and abandoned this method of attack.

"Matthew, I am bankrupt, insolvent, forced to make an assignment," she said in a plaintive, spoiled child tone. "I want some money—a lot of money, in fact—for a very special purpose. May I have it?"

"A lot?" repeated Matthew.

"Yes, that's it; at least a hundred."

Matthew looked grave. "What is the special purpose?" he inquired, fervently hoping she would tell him all about the proposed theater party.

"That's a secret," said Miss Idlewild, with an air of mystery.

"I cannot let you have any money just now, Eve," he said gently after a pause, and as he spoke he carefully avoided her eye and stared with rapt absorption at the carpet.

"Hereafter," continued Miss Idlewild, with a grand air, "I will manage my own money matters. Then I will know just how much I have and spend it as I please without begging for it. I am of age, and I will not endure such treatment any longer."

All this she said in anger, never dreaming that long suffering Matthew would take her at her word.

"Very well," he said, and he was a little paler as he spoke. "I will take steps to this end at once. You will find I have not abused my trust."

Incensed as she was, Miss Idlewild's head drooped with something like shame at these words. Never in her life had Matthew spoken to her like this. Never before had she felt abashed and frightened in his presence. A swift sense of his fidelity and her own ingratitude rushed over her.

"Matthew!" she faltered, and she took a step forward, but he turned away.

"You will pardon me if I leave you," he said formally. "I am very busy this morning."

He held the door open for her, and with burning cheeks she hurried out, and no word was spoken by either as they parted.

Poor Matthew was cut to the heart.

Certainly she tried to make amends to him in a thousand ways. Indeed, her manner to him was so much gentler that he began to think she had guessed his secret—that she pitied him.

Matthew lived only about half a block from the Joys, and Evelyn was in the habit of running in and out of his house as if it were her own. She was a very special pet of Miss Abby, Matthew's maiden sister, who kept house for him.

Matthew went into his study one evening about 8 o'clock and closed the door, giving strict orders that he was not to be disturbed. It was about 15 minutes later, just as he had settled down for his evening's reading, when he heard the doorbell ring, then quick footsteps running down the hall, followed by a gentle tap at his door.

He did not say, "Come in," but got up, with some irritation, and opened the door.

It was Miss Idlewild in evening dress, with a frothy looking pink thing over her head and shoulders, laughing and out of breath.

"May I come in?" she said demurely.

Matthew looked at her unsmilingly, still holding on to the door.

"Abby is out," he said. "She has gone with some ladies to a lecture."

"How lovely for her!" said Miss Idlewild rather quickly. Apparently she was her old self this evening.

"Did you come over here with no wrap but that flimsy thing?" asked Matthew, looking his very crossest.

"Yes, grandmother." This was what she called Matthew when he lectured her.

He had hitherto borne such gibes in patient silence, but tonight it angered him.

"I object to your addressing me in that manner," he said with an effort.

"I beg your pardon, Matthew," she said, looking a little frightened. "It was only in fun."

Then he said: "You will take cold going back. I will send for a shawl." And he rang the bell as he spoke.

"I'm going to take you home now," he said, "and I want you to wear this. Let me put it around you."

"I won't have it!" she exclaimed excitedly, tears gathering in her eyes.

"Now, Evelyn," said Matthew gravely, "that is childish. It is a winter night. You have on an indoor dress. You must put on a wrap. And probably Miss Patty and Howard are uneasy about you. Come, be reasonable."

"I will go home," said Miss Idlewild in a trembling voice, "since you are so anxious to be rid of me. But I will not need either you or the shawl."

"You will nevertheless have both on this occasion," said Matthew sternly. "And I will not discuss the matter with you any longer."

So saying, he went up to her and put the shawl around her, whether she would or not. In trying to evade him she stumbled, and he caught her, shawl and all, in his arms.

Matthew always said he completely lost his head at this moment. He forgot himself—forgot everything but that the girl he loved was in his arms at last!

"Eve," he said desperately, holding her close and all his pent up man's soul breaking its bonds, "you know that I love you!"

Then he released her quickly with an expression on his face as of one expecting the heavens to fall. But instead of falling the heavens seemed to open their golden gates to Matthew, for Miss Idlewild, all swathed as she was like an Egyptian mummy, looked up at him with wet, laughing eyes.

"It took you a long time to make up your mind, Matthew," she said plaintively.—Buffalo News.

Charles Reade's Motto.

"I propose never to guess what I can know." This motto was rigidly adhered to by the author, whose love of accuracy was so great that he spared no pains to verify every statement he desired to make in any of his novels, grudging no amount of labor which he expended in the accomplishment of this result. He was an indefatigable collector of newspaper clippings from all nations, which he carefully classified and arranged in many scrapbooks. Reports of many institutions, police gazettes, accounts of trials and accidents and manifold descriptions of all sorts were filed away for future reference. The contents of these scrapbooks were indexed with great care, and from them Charles Reade derived great satisfaction. If ever any of his statements were questioned or his facts denied, he would turn triumphantly to his classified scrapbooks and refute the objections with some positive proof contained therein.—Miss Tucker in Truth.

The Banana.

The banana is said to have 34 times the nutritive value of the potato and 25 times that of bread. In the West Indies the natives cut the fruit into strips called "pegs," dry these in the sun and grind them into flour, out of which many excellent dishes are made. No cheaper food grows in the tropics. The plant begins bearing 14 months after being planted. It requires no cultivation and produces harvests uninterruptedly for 11 years. A few feet of ground nourishes a plant, and the space of a dooryard will grow plants enough to maintain a large family.

The punkah coolie in India is to have a season of repose. The Indian government has issued orders for the installation of electric fans in various barracks and military stations, dispensing with the half-hearted and sleepy wallah whose immemorial duty it has been to pull the string of the punkah or ceiling fan.

INDIGESTION

Cured by Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure

"I suffered over two years with Indigestion and Nervous Dyspepsia, unable to eat or sleep. I tried several physicians and different remedies, but they only helped me for a short time. A friend advised me to take Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken three boxes, and am now feeling better than I have for two years. Have a good appetite, sleep well and have none of the symptoms of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, while I have gained ten pounds in weight within a couple of months. I am taking pleasure in recommending Johnson's Dyspepsia Cure wherever I can, and several of my friends are taking it with marked results."—L. A. Arnold, Cinn.

If ever luck broke in favor of the Hoosiers it was in the game played at League park yesterday with Wheeling. Time and again it appeared as if the visitors would score runs, but some lucky play would shut them off without a score. The game was won by Fort Wayne on a scratch hit by Belden. Letcher was on third base and Miller on second when Belden came to bat. Pardee hurled a swift curve at Ira, who dodged with his bat on his shoulder. The ball struck the bat and sailed over Tom Turner's head. The Wheeling infield was playing in to catch the runner at the plate and although Turner made a desperate try to catch Belden's little fly the best he could do was to miss it by six inches as Letcher and Miller sailed over the plate with the two runs that were necessary to win the game.

Harper and Pardee were pitching good ball, but the Stogies gave the big fellow very yellow support, the Hoosiers' first two runs counting on three errors without a hit being made. Harper was batted for two singles and two two-baggers in the third inning and the result was three earned runs for Wheeling. The Stogies' last run came in the eighth inning when Turner singled and scored on Pequinney's base on balls, Rothermel's out from Babb to Brashear and Harper's error. Krueger made a neat double play in the ninth and headed off a chance the Stogies had to score a run or two. Score:

At Indianapolis yesterday afternoon the Shamrocks defeated the crack Reserves. The Shamrocks knocked Derrick out of the box in the second inning. A large crowd of Fort Wayne people were in the grand stand and pulled hard for the Shamrocks. Robbins was given fine support, Nill's work at third being a feature of the game. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

On Next Saturday and Sunday the Shamrocks will play at Marion. The team will leave over the Wabash at 9:30 Saturday morning.

The Eagle Juniors defeated the East End Stars yesterday by a score of 42 to 10. Batteries—Eagle Juniors, Degitz, Schrumm and Wiggins; Stars, Becks, Smith, Carver and Lauer.

The Fort Waynes made four fast double plays in the game yesterday. This is the league record for nine innings, although the Mansfield did make four or five in a thirteen-inning game.

The Muncie Globes expect to bring a good crowd of "rooters" to pull for the Muncie boys in the game to be played between the Globes and the Shamrocks at League park on the afternoon of July 4.

Lafayette Courier: "Post A. Fort Wayne, will cross bats with Post E. Lafayette, on Saturday, June 30, at Lafayette. This will be a hot game and it will be largely attended by broken shins and noses.' Excursion rates on all railroads insures a good attendance."

Hollingsworth is playing a wonderful second base and Otto Krueger is showing up all the Inter State shortstops.

Fricken and Poole are pitted against each other in the game this afternoon. Tomorrow Swaim will pitch for Fort Wayne and Skopec for Wheeling.

The Elks defeated the Wayne Streets by a score of 30 to 11. Batteries Elks, Wartenbe, Stinger and Kruse; Wayne Streets, Hoffman, Kesler and Gerberding.

Manager Finn has released "Bad" Bill Eagan and signed Samuel Mills, who is even older than Eagan, to play second base. Catcher Hess, the best player in the Youngstown bunch, has also been released.

A nine from the clerks' union and the Archer Printing company base ball nine played an interesting game Sunday morning, the result being a defeat for the clerks by a score of 13 to 8. Batteries—Clerks, Kleinsorg and Coldive; Archer Printing Co., Ault and Ault.

Harper was off in fielding his position yesterday. He interfered with the ball four times when it was possible that Krueger or Hollingsworth might have fielded the ball to first in time to retire the batter. Two of the attempts were on very hard hit balls, which were credited as base hits.

"Bumpus" Jones is improving and was last evening moved to the home of Manager Miller, No. 122 West Washington street, where he is being treated by Dr. M. Rosenthal. It is believed that Jones will be able to pitch when the club returns from Dayton. Meantime Swaim, Harper and Fricken will do all the work. Manager Miller says it is unnecessary to sign another pitcher.

Griffin is being thoroughly "knocked" by some of the Toledo writers. Fort Wayne players assert that when it comes to crediting errors Steve is given more than he deserves, while on phenomenal plays many of the best are overlooked by the scribes, who are determined that he shall be released by Strobel. Griffin knows the game better than any man on the Toledo team and can turn tricks that Bob Gilks doesn't remember until he has seen them turned by Griffin. He is about the best "pinch" hitter in the league.

The sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer should muzzle the space writer from Toledo, who is doing more just now to hurt the Inter State league than all the alleged rowdy ball players in the United States. A few years ago it was a Springfield correspondent who made matters appear bad for the Inter State and now it is the fellow in Toledo who writes for the Enquirer at so much per. Two-thirds of the stuff he writes is untrue and the other third might be readable in a golf column, but as base ball news it is very mushy. By the way, while the talk about rowdyism is on allow The Sentinel to say that Bob Gilks, who has heretofore always been a gentleman, has come nearer being a rowdy on the Fort Wayne grounds than any other player, not even barring "Bad" Bill Eagan.

Columbus is still kicking because the other Inter State managers did not give President Riley a winning team. If President Riley had acted for himself he could have secured players just the same as other managers. Almost every team in the league has been compelled to strengthen and the players were not secured from the other teams in the league, either. Fort Wayne secured Jones, Fricken and Harper, Toledo signed Joss, Kane and Turner, Dayton picked up Gochnauer, Burns and Wicker, New Castle nabbed Thomas, Williams, Lawrence and Cawley, Mansfield found Ames and Fox and Youngstown has half a dozen new men, none of whom played in the Inter State until this year. Fort Wayne released Jack Glasscock to Columbus. Glasscock is as good a manager as there is in the country and President Riley needed him as manager, but the Columbus scribes kicked and Glasscock went to Sioux City, where he has won about two-thirds of the games played. If Mr. Riley had followed his own judgment and signed Glasscock as manager Columbus scribes would now have a different story to tell.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, June 25.—Wheat began the new business week nervous and active with a big trade. July at the opening sold all the way from 86½c to 88c, compared with Saturday's close at 88c. The northwest was still without rain and the sun was reported still engaged in scorching what remains of the spring wheat crop. In Manitoba there was some moisture. Liverpool cables were comparatively weak and world's shipments heavy. Russian shipments were 2,000,000 and attracted some attention. Harvesting of the Kansas "bumper" crop was reported progressing under the best conditions. There was heavy profit-taking by longs, but the demand was equal to the occasion and July sold up immediately to 88½c. The market reacted rapidly to 87¼c and steadied around 88c. Northwest receipts were light. Chicago had 187 cars, 10 of contract grade, while Minneapolis and Duluth reported 474 cars, against 648 last week and 981 a year ago.

Later in the session the market broke heavily. The southwest favorable conditions were compared with the northwest situation as balancing matters to a degree. July declined sharply to 83¾c. A reaction followed on covering, but the close was unsteady, July 2c under Saturday at 86c.

The corn market was rather easy, but fairly active. July opened 1-to 1¼c lower at 41½c to 41¼c, rallied to 42¼@42¼c and then eased off to 41⅞c, where the market steadied. Receipts here were 610 cars.

The market later broke with wheat to 41c, but steadied and closed 1@1¼c under Saturday at 41½c.

Oats were strong and active, supported by northwest buying on damage to the feed crops of that section. July opened ¼c over Saturday at 25¾c and sold to 26c. Receipts here were 284 cars.

Provisions were active and weak. Hog receipts were large, the market at the yards was lower and longs were profit-takers. July pork opened at $12.50 to $12.70 and sold off to $12.35; July lard at $6.95, declining to $6.87½, and July ribs at $7.05, easing to $7.02½.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—June 85c; July, 86c; Aug., 87¼c.

Corn—June, 41⅜c; July, 41½c; Aug., 42¼c.

Oats—June, 25¾c; July, 25¾c; Aug., 26c.

Pork—June, $12.32½; July, $12.32½; Sept., $12.52½@12.55.

Lard—June, $6.87½; July, $7.67½, Sept., $7.92½; Oct., $7.92½; Nov., $7.92½.

Ribs—June, $6.95@6.97½; July, $6.95@6.97½; Sept., $7.05.

Flax—Cash N. W., $1.80; Cash S. W., $1.60; Sept., $1.56; Oct., $1.53.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, June 25.—Cattle—Receipts, 21,000, including 140 Texans; market generally 10c lower. Good to prime steers, $5.00@5.70; poor to medium, $4.40@5.00; stockers and feeders, $3.00@4.75; cows, $2.90@4.55; heifers, $4.10@4.75; canners, $2.25@2.85; bulls, $2.80@4.00; calves, $5.00@6.50; Texas grass steers, $3.65@4.20; Texas bulls, $2.75@3.40.

Hogs—Receipts today, 40,000; tomorrow, 25,000; left over, 1,800. Market 2½@5c lower; top, $5.30. Mixed and butchers, $5.10@5.35, good to choice heavy, $5.20@5.30; rough heavy, $5.05@5.15; light, $5.05@5.30; bulk of sales, $5.20@5.30.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, June 5.—With only a few exceptions prices were lower to the extent of a large fraction at the opening of the stock exchange, losses extending to a point or over in prominent stocks in the group of Industrials, Grangers, Trunk lines and local traction stocks. Brooklyn Transit opened down ⅝, but rallied ¼. New York Central was conspicuous for a rise of ¾ and the Steel stocks were quite firm. Stock prices rallied after the opening, as has been the case of late. This advantage, however, was not long maintained, as a vigorous raid of Brooklyn Transit and Baltimore and Ohio depressed them 2⅞ and 3 points respectively. In other stocks some support was evident, notably in some of the Pacifics and other railroad stocks. The Grangers, except Rock Island, fell to the lowest and the general level of prices ruled below Saturday's close. Consolidated Gas broke 5 points.

There was some heavy liquidation in the western railroad stocks on the crop outlook. Northwest led with a fall of 2¼, while Burlington and Rock Island figured for 1½ each. Coincident with this weakness some of the steel stocks lost between 1 and 2 points. Prices got down to the lowest, Baltimore and Ohio extending its loss to 4 points and Brooklyn Transit to 3⅝. Rallies in some of the speculative leaders reached 1 to 1½, but were poorly held. The market remained unsettled and feverish.

Bonds were easier in sympathy with stocks.

THE CARS RUN IN ST. LOUIS

NO INTERFERENCE WITH THE TRAFFIC.

Busses of the Strikers Are Largely Patronized in Some Districts of the City.

St. Louis, June 25. Cars were operated without interference today on all lines of the Transit company. Less than the usual number of cars are running, especially north and south. A majority of the passengers usually carried by these north and south lines are still patronizing the wagons and busses of the strikers, through sympathy of the men who are out or fear of the consequences of being caught riding on Transit company's cars. As the demonstrations against those who use the cars in these sections of the city become less frequent, however, the number who patronize them increases.

Both the Transit company and the union men seemed satisfied with the situation. The strikers say there are now no negotiations on foot for a settlement. They declare funds are coming in more rapidly and that the boycott is working satisfactory. On the other hand, officials of the company claim as the danger from violence decreases, the cars have more passengers and that as soon as all fear is removed the normal traffic will resume.

Coroner Lloyd today resumed the inquest over Thomas, Rine and Burkhardt, strikers, who were killed June 10.

Judge Elmer B. Adams, of the United States district court, today granted a temporary injunction in the case of W. D. Mahon and all the members of Division No. 131, of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes of America, restraining them from interfering in any way with the running of mail cars over the lines of the St. Louis Transit company.

This decision was reached after listening to the arguments of counsel for the strikers and United States District Attorney Rozier and the reading of numerous affidavits submitted by both sides.

New Wrinkle in Advertising.

A new scheme of advertising was resorted to by a progressive business firm in a prosperous city in the South. The junior partner of the firm swore out a warrant for the arrest of the senior partner on the ground that he was selling goods below cost, and that the firm was constantly losing money.

The case came up in court, and the counsel for the senior partner asked for a postponement in order to have more time to prepare his case. The judge granted the request, bail was fixed and the senior member was released. As he left the court room the junior partner arose and exclaimed: "If he is released the sacrifice will go on!"

The news spread and the firm did a better business.

When the case was again called no plaintiff appeared and the charge was dismissed. The firm had succeeded in their object—advertisement.

IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

THE PROHIBITIONISTS TO MEET IN CHICAGO.

The Cold Water Political Party Will Be Called to Order Wednesday Afternoon.

Chicago, June 25.—Prohibitionists are beginning to arrive for the national convetion to be held on Wednesday and Thursday at the First Regiment armory and the state convention to be held tomorrow at the same place. The national meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning by Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national committee.

John G. Woolry and Hale Johnson, both of Illinois, are strong favorites for the presidential nomination. Hundreds of large campaign buttons, having upon them a picture of the former, are being distributed. It is thought that in the early balloting for nominations the Illinois delegates will be divided between Wooley and Johnson, with the understanding that the solid vote will later be thrown to the one of the candidates is owing the ... strength.

The disposition among the Illinois delegates is to work for the nomination of some western man and they feel that either of the candidates from the states fill the requirements.

Those who claim to be well acquainted with the situation say Mr. Wooley will get the support of the New England states, Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, Kansas and Tennessee, while Mr. Johnson will look for his strength from Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, North Carolina, Virginia and Arkansas.

Rev. Dr. S. C. Swallow, of Harrisburg, Pa., will come before the convention with a strong following and it is believed will lead on the first ballot with fairly good chances of success. Delegates from his own state and from New Jersey, Maryland, Kentucky, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska will support his candidacy. The selection of a vice presidential nominee will depend largely upon what section of the country the presidential choice comes from. Among the candidates are:

A Modern Chinese Wall.

A modern Chinese wall, erected to keep out, not barbarians, like the ancient Mongols, but hordes of animal pests that threaten to overrun the land and bring ruin to the farmers, is now being erected in Australia and the purpose seems to be to inclose the whole colony. The first fence was built in 1897 and extended a distance of [illegible] miles. Since then the government has kept up the work of fence building, and the number of miles of rabbit proof fencing now erected in the colony is 17,280. The fence has been extended along the entire western border of the colony and along two-thirds of the northern boundary.

That the rabbit has become a terrible pest in Australia is well known. There is probably no other animal that supplies the markets of the world with so many skins in a year as the rabbits of Australia and New Zealand. About 6,000,000 squirrel skins of Siberia are sent to Europe annually, but in one year as many as 8,000,000 rabbit skins have been exported from Australia, and still there seems to be no abatement of the nuisance.

Mansour, the horse that ran third in the Grand Prix of Paris in 1894, is now pulling a public cab in the streets of that gay capital.

All Tired Out

Nerves unstrung, headache, wakeful nights, irritable temper, poor memory, appetite gone, digestion deranged, failing strength and despondency, mark the victim of nervous prostration. The nerves need rest, relief, nourishment. Feed them, quiet them and build up their wasted tissues with the great brain food and nerve tonic

Dr. Miles' Nervine.

"I felt weak and tired out all the time, was annoyed at every little noise and when night came I could not sleep or rest. I took three bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine and the tired, worried and nervous feelings were all gone, leaving me strong and well."

A WINONA DUMMY

THE RESORT TRAIN WENT INTO SERVICE THIS MORNING.

EXCURSIONS OF YESTERDAY

ALL WELL PATRONIZED AND FREE FROM ACCIDENTS.

INCREASED THE SHOP FORCE

HAD TO GO TO CHICAGO FOR MECHANICS.

The Pennsylvania company placed a "dummy" in service between Warsaw and Winona this morning and it will make a round trip every half hour, if there are any passengers. The train will be hauled by engine 428, with Engineer Jerre McCarthy and Fireman H. P. Bitner in the cab, while Conductor Joseph W. Keeler will preside over the cars and collect the fares. The assembly proper does not open until next Monday, though the houses and hotel are already being filled by those who will participate in the session.

YESTERDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

The excursions yesterday were fairly well patronized, considering the fact that they were immediately preceded by the big excursion to Rome City of the Pittsburg shopmen. The St. Joseph Athletic club took 371 people to Benton Harbor, the Lake Erie and Western had 130 passengers out of this city for Indianapolis and brought in here from points along the line of that railway nearly 300 people, the Wabash took 110 to Toledo and ten to Put-in-Bay and the Grand Rapids and Indiana took 239 of our people to Rome City. Not a single accident occurred on any of these excursions and all were most pleasant events.

THE SHOPMEN'S EXCURSION.

Saturday's excursion was one of the most enjoyable of the thirteen given to the Pittsburg shopmen and had the weather been less threatening the crowd would have exceeded any previous crowd. Hereafter these excursions will be open to all employes, including officers, clerks, trainmen, enginemen, laborers in the freight house, yards and on the road and it will probably require five or six trains to handle the crowd. Heretofore only the shopmen and their families were expected to participate in the excursion, though others could do so were they so disposed.

READY TO BUILD SPUR.

The ties for extending the spur from the railway tracks east of Lafayette to the coal bins at the Bass blacksmith shop and into the yards adjacent to the machine shop were delivered this morning and it is probable that the work will be pushed rapidly forward.

HIRED MORE MEN.

Six or eight machinists from Chicago took positions in the shops of the Pennsylvania company this morning. Mechanics are scarce here and the Chicago gentlemen came in response to an advertisement in the Record. This incident indicates a very busy season in the machinists' line, particularly in Fort Wayne. The men in the Pennsylvania shops are still working overtime, with little prospect of change this summer.

BIG ABSENTEE LIST.

Nearly every department of the Pittsburg shops has a large absentee list today, due chiefly to sickness. New names on the lists are C. H. Smith, H. C. C. Nees, W. Tweedy, P. E. Albers, Michael Sullivan, P. Ropa, William Lepper, A. Burchard, J. A. Nippet and E. Zorbaugh, who are sick, and J. Richards, S. B. Kleber, J. Sochreiter and W. P. Laug, who are attending to business.

NO FREE TRANSPORTATION.

The railways leading to Kansas City have decided not to issue any free transportation to that city on the occasion of the democratic convention. The railways believe that they have been sufficiently generous in making low rates and that, therefore, they cannot be expected to carry anyone free.

MORRIS HONORED.

W. H. Morris was elected president of the American Master Mechanics' association, which closed its annual meeting last Saturday evening. Mr. Morris was for several years master mechanic of the eastern division of the Wabash and had his headquarters in this city. He is now superintendent of motive power of the Chesapeake and Ohio and resides in Richmond, Va. Mr. Morris is a frequent visitor here, where relatives reside, and is interested in a real estate way in the city also. The association did not select a meeting place for next year and it is understood that the selection will not be made until a meeting of chairmen of the committees some time next winter. Other officers of the association elected Saturday are: Vice presidents, A. H. Waltman, of New York; J. A. Barr of Milwaukee, and George W. West, of Middletown, N. Y.; treasurer, A. Sinclair, of New York; secretary, J. W. Taylor, of Chicago.

DRAGGED TO DEATH.

A horrible accident occurred at Delphos, Ohio, last night. Ernest Alspach, eighteen years old, whose parents reside on a farm three miles from that city, had been on a visit to Middlepoint, and to save car fare, climbed aboard a freight train to ride home. When he reached Delphos he attempted to get off the train while it was in motion, but slipped and fell, his feet catching in the car stirrups. With his head bumping along on the end of the ties young Alspach was dragged until he was dead. When the trainmen discovered him the train was stopped and the body removed from the car and turned over to the Delphos authorities.

COTTAGERS' TRAIN SERVICE.

Next Wednesday the Grand Rapids and Indiana company will inaugurate its cottagers' train service between the Rome City resort and Fort Wayne. The train will leave this city at 5 o'clock in the evening and Rome City at 7 in the morning. Next Sunday the company will also put on another Rome City train, to be run only on Sunday. On that date and thereafter there will be two trains instead of one, leaving at 6:30 and 7:30 a. m., respectively.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

The Wabash pay car will arrive here Wednesday morning.

C. B. Watterson, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is visiting friends in Chicago.

Paul Kinley, an upholsterer at the Pittsburg shops, has gone into Michigan for a week's visit.

H. S. Weirwick, storekeeper for the Wabash at Peru, has resigned. He was well known here to the railway boys.

The directors of the Lake Erie and Western will meet on Tuesday to declare a dividend on the preferred stock.

M. Wambaugh, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is off duty today to help move his household goods and family.

J. W. McCoy, foreman of the erecting department at the Wabash shops, has returned from Dunkirk, N. Y., where he visited friends a week.

George Wood and A. L. Hadley have returned, the former from Vincennes and the latter from Ada, Ohio. They are employed by the Electric company.

Ed. Deegan, the Wabash shopman, who was confined for three weeks in the company's hospital at Peru, has recovered and this morning resumed work in the shop.

General Manager Joseph Ramsey, of the Wabash, has returned to his headquarters in St. Louis, after a week in New York, conferring with other officials of the road.

Joseph Jones, foreman of the Wabash tin shop, is preparing for a visit to Moberly, Mo., his former home. He will probably set out on the journey next Thursday morning.

Charles Damon has resigned a position he held in the Wabash shops for some time. It is understood that he has been promised work in some other establishment in the city.

Nickel Plate Engineer C. H. VanGorder, who has been feeling badly for several days, has taken a vacation and will not return to work until there is an improvement in his health conditions.

H. P. Smith, of the japanning department of the Electric works, resumed his duties there this morning after an absence on account of a nuptial event, in which he was the groom.

The blind pool arrangement of the roads leading east from Chicago has been interfered with by the publication of the shipments and hereafter the public will be deprived of that bit of news.

Mrs. C. L. Hue, of Silverton, Col., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Engineer and Mrs. C. H. VanGorder. Mr. Hue was formerly a fireman on the Nickel Plate road. He is now engaged in mining.

Henry Rodenbeck, the well known blacksmith, has returned to his duties in the Bass works after an illness. He hopes to have no further trouble with the malady that confined him ten days.

Charles Rodenbeck and William Zimmerman have returned from Rome City, where they were in camp two weeks. They tell some wonderful fish stories, which are substantiated by fishermen who tried their luck in Sylvan lake yesterday. "Nothing there to catch," they say, "Rodenbeck and Zimmerman having depleted the lake of its finny inhabitants."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thiebold have returned from their wedding trip and Mr. Thiebold resumed his clerical duties in the east yard office this morning.

Two cars were derailed and the tracks slightly deranged on the street crossing of the Pittsburg yesterday. Slight delay to traffic at that point was the only damage.

Wilbur P. Collins, the master mechanic of the Monon who died last Saturday, was the inventor of the spark arrester for locomotives now used on every standard line in the country.

Ambrose Benedict, assistant foreman of the erecting department of the Pittsburg machine shop, is out on the road doing special work. This week he will be in Chicago much of the time.

Yesterday the Grand Trunk put into service a fast train between Chicago and Montreal, covering the distance in twenty-three hours, seven hours less than the former flyer consumed in making the run.

"How long does the train stop here?" the old lady asked the brakeman. "Stop here!" answered the functionary. "Four minutes. From two to two to two-two." "I wonder," mused the lady, "if that man thinks he is the whistle!"

Columbus Dispatch: "Surveys are being made for a new railroad which will provide for the Wabash its long sought entrance into Pittsburg. The new line will be built from Wheeling, and according to the plan, will run down Sawmill run."

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania lines, who was to have sailed for Europe on Wednesday, has postponed the trip until some time in July. It is thought that some big railway deals are still pending which led him to postpone his trip.

The Ladies' society of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen will give an ice cream social tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Koepf, corner of Mechanic and Elm streets, opposite the east end of the foot bridge leading to Swinney park.

W. M. Ruth leaves today for Chicago, after a week's visit with his father-in-law, T. C. Rogers. Mr. Ruth is a machinist and formerly worked in the Pennsylvania and the Bass shops in this city. He now resides in Pittsburg, where he holds a responsible position.

John F. Szink, Henry Dryer, T. W. Smith, E. B. Moore, Casper Lehmkuler, Al Throckmorton, C. Steuger and J. Kalliker, all employes of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, reported for duty after an absence on account of sickness. Some of the men had been ill three or four weeks.

Machinist Gus Gresh resumed his place in the Wabash shops this morning after a brief absence. William C. Tegtmeyer also reported for duty at the Wabash shops. He had been off duty on account of the death of his brother, Fred Tegtmeyer, the Pittsburg conductor, who was killed last week.

Saturday night at 6 o'clock the Clipper Bicycle works at Grand Rapids closed and 250 men were thrown out of employment. The shut down is said to be due to the trust, other manufacturers of wheels desiring to reduce the number of factories in order that the sale of their products will be greater.

Fred C. Burmeister, fifty-five years old and for the past twenty years a baggagemaster on the Lake Shore road, was incarcerated in the Ohio penitentiary last Saturday. He opened and robbed trunks to the total amount, it is alleged, of $25,000. He had a penchant for diamonds and stole only jewelry of that character. A female detective discovered the thief by making a friend of Burmeister, who gave her a diamond valued at $1,500. When arrested he admitted the thefts.

A SERMON ON INFIDELITY

REV. E. W. ALLEN ADDRESSES A LARGE AUDIENCE.

Opening Meeting of the Sunday Evening Series Successful Excellent Music.

The attendance at the Temple theater last evening at the opening meeting of the series to be given by Rev. E. W. Allen during the summer months was most gratifying and there is every indication that they will prove successful. The subject of the discourse was "Infidelity: Its Cause and Cure," and the text was a portion of the seventh chapter of John. Rev. Allen said in part:

"The word infidelity, which means untrue or unconstant, and is generally applied in a moral sense, has been used as applying to religion to express a lack of belief. There are a great many doubters, honest doubters, and with these, it is a good plan to reason. Doubt is not sin, but is an evidence of honesty which those people do not possess who will allow creeds to be stuffed down their throats and swallow them with a grimace, declaring them to be a good nostrum. The people of Christ's time were largely doubters, always questioning and doubting the things they heard. Let us consider the causes and cures of these doubts. In the first place, we are all doubters from our earliest infancy; we are always asking why? when? where? what? This spirit increases as we grow older and by our questions we gain a knowledge of the simple facts of every-day life. We live in a veritable ocean of mystery. We see things going on about us which we acept as a matter of fact, and yet we are at a loss to explain some of the simplest laws of physics.

"We often hear a man say that he is unsectarian, unbiased, impartial; that his perception is clear; but no man ever lived who possessed these characteristics, excepting Christ. A sinful person is prejudiced against truth when he comes in contact with it. The Christian religion itself is open to doubt. It is impossible to defend the tenets of the Christian religion and reason with accuracy and precision. It is not possible for me to demonstrate to you beyond a doubt that God exists; I cannot demonstrate beyond a doubt that there is a future life, for it is impossible for me to do so. If it were possible to so demonstrate, then all that would be necessary would be to chase a man down and pour into his ears arguments which he must accept. Experience and faith are the only means by which the knowledge of God and a future existence can be kept alive. Therefore, experience may be said to be a great cure for infidelity, as we understand the word with regard to the Bible. Doubt is honesty; unbelief is contempt. The method by which the existence of God is proven is by giving facts. Jesus said to Thomas, 'Come and see.' Giving the people facts should be the method employed today. There is no conflict between faith and reason. We can acept the things we see by reason, but faith must be exercised about the things unseen. There is perfect harmony between faith and reason, for where reason ceases faith begins.

"One great reason for doubt is the number of hypocrites we have in the church today. We must not doubt because of this any more than that we should lose our faith in the medical profession because there are quacks.

"I will say in conclusion that I pay no attention to the unsolved questions of the Bible. There is plenty to deal with in the many truths with which the Word abounds and it would be bootless for me to search for and puzzle over those things which, even if solved, would not benefit me or anyone else."

The musical program last evening was most acceptable. A men's quartet gave a selection and Miss Harriet Stemen gave the solo, "The Ninety and Nine," in a most pleasing manner. The congregation united in singing a number of gospel hymns, accompanied by a cornet and piano. There will be services in the Temple each Sunday evening during the summer.

UNITED IRISH SOCIETIES.

New York, June 25. A closed meeting of delegates of the United Irish American societies was held last night in this city. Reports were received from the Irish convention held in Dublin stating that its elections had received the unanimous approval of the societies in Ireland and the meeting thereupon also approved of the proceedings of the convention and pledged the United Irish-American society to give to the convention their moral and financial support all along. Resolutions condemning the deportation of the two Fenians were adopted. The meeting considered a proposition to raise a fund to help the two men to get along in Ireland, but no definite action was taken.

LOCAL LINES.

Miss Lola McElfatrick is spending a few days in Rome City, the guest of friends.

Herman Miller and sister, Miss Clara, are spending a few days with friends in South Bend.

Dr. J. W. Hays, of Albion, arrived at noon to attend the meeting of the Allen County Medical society.

Mrs. Bond, mother of Charley Bond, of the Wabash shops, will be the guest of friends in Lafayette for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buncannon, of New Castle, Ind., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kelsey, of Michigan avenue.

The recently elected officers of the Epworth league of the Berry street M. E. church were installed at the regular meeting of the league on Sunday.

W. H. Rohan returned from Niles, Mich., at noon today, where he has been visiting his family, who are spending the summer with friends there.

Miss Dessie Wyatt, of the Home telephone exchange, is spending her vacation in Chicago. Miss Maud Harris, of the same office, is also enjoying a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Stouder leave tomorrow for an extended stay in New York. Mr. Stouder goes to complete the booking of Temple attractions for next season.

George W. Jones, the well known real estate man, has removed his office from the corner of Calhoun and Main streets to neat rooms in the Swinney block, on East Main street.

The bans of marriage of Miss C. Zehender, of this city, and James Eatlenbauch, of Bloomington, Ind., were read at the Cathedral on Sunday. The wedding will take place in Bloomington this week.

Very Rev. John Guendling will return from Lafayette this evening, where he has been with Bishop Shanley, of Dakota, who has been administering confirmation in the Catholic churches of the Fort Wayne diocese.

There will be no more evening services at the First Presbyterian church during the summer months, an announcement to that effect having been made by Rev. Dr. Moffat on Sunday. Dr. Moffat leaves about the 15th of next month for his annual vacation.

Henry Hull, of Churubusco, has returned from a three weeks' sojourn in Kansas, fully contented with his lot in Indiana. He brings sad stories of deprivations and in some instances of starvation. The drought is simply terrible, in some localities destroying all growing grain, vegetation and grasses and leaving nothing upon the bare ground. Mr. Hull will not move to that state.

John Kress, of the electric light works, accompanied by his five sons and two daughters, spent Saturday at the home of James Kress, in Washington township, where they celebrated the eighty-third anniversary of the birth of Mr. Kress' mother, who died four years ago, but who, previous to her death, was in the habit of holding a reunion of her children, ten sons and four daughters. Three daughters are still living, and in company with seven surviving sons, and about sixty guests, they sat down to a sumptuous dinner. Addresses were made by Dr. Kontz and Rev. Frank Robinson, of Roanoke. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with music and other diversions.

WILL ISSUE AN ANNUAL.

The R. F. C. club, a prominent social organization, has decided to issue an annual book, chronicling the events, happenings and history of the club from day to day. This year's book will be entitled, "The Condopricator," and the club's motto is, "We do as we please." The book will be issued in about four weeks and the following is the board of editors: Fred Schmidt, editor in chief; Charles Dickmeyer, assistant editor in chief; George Beck, business manager; Fred Dickmeyer, society; Herman Jacob, literary; Albert Young, athletics.

ON SUMMER OUTINGS.

A large number of Fort Wayne people have departed for the summer resorts on the annual vacation and many others will leave within a few days. The families of Louis Fox, J. E. K. France, M. F. Schmetzer will be domiciled at Slyvan lake this week. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Olds, Miss Carlie Olds and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Olds and children leave soon for their cottages at Bear lake. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Trentman and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Fleming and children will spend several weeks at the same beautiful spot. Fred McCulloch will spend the greater part of the summer there. Mrs. Caroline Nuttman and granddaughter, Miss Gertrude Hanna, leave this week for Mackinac Island. On Wednesday Mrs. S. C. Lumbard, Miss Georgia Lumbard and Frank Lumbard, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Carnahan and son Robert, Dr. and Mrs. N. L. Deming and E. H. Olds will go to Riverview farm for a month's stay.

FOUND AN OLD CHECK.

Upon West Main street, just opposite the Saengerbund building, this morning, Noah Webber found an old check that is a memento of Fort Wayne business circles more than thirty years ago. The check was dated in 1866, drawn on the old Hamilton bank, signed by Joseph Clark and called for $26.31. The check bore a revenue stamp of the issue in use during the civil war. A street car had passed over the paper and mutilated it so that the name of the payee is not legible, but the check has no mark to indicate that it has ever been paid. Mr. Clark, who signed the check, was a tailor who conducted a business on East Berry street many years ago.

A COUNTY FAIR IN OCTOBER

AGRICUTURAL SOCIETY FIXES THE DATES.

Exhibition Will Open Tuesday, Oct. 2—Continues Five Days—The Plans.

At a meeting held at the city hall Saturday afternoon the Allen County Agricultural and Horticultural society took the initiative steps toward holding an old-fashioned county fair at the Fort Wayne Driving park the coming fall. It will open on Tuesday, Oct. 5, and will continue five days.

The agricultural society will proceed with the preliminaries and it is believed the business men will give the project sufficient encouragement to solicit the funds necessary to insure its success from a financial standpoint. About $2,000 will be required, and the Commercial club will be invited to assist in the matter.

There will be exhibits of all kinds of farm products, agricultural tools and implements and everything pertaining to the farm, while business men who wish to make a display of their wares will also be given space. Premiums aggregating $2,000 or $3,000 will be given, distributed through the various classes of exhibits. A big card of horses, bicycle races and other amusement events will be given.

WILL RAISE GUARANTEE.

It was decided to raise a guarantee fund of $3,500 to cover any possible deficit in premiums and expenses and nearly $200 was subscribed at the meeting Saturday. A committee of six members was appointed to solicit during the coming week, as follows: J. R. Hartzell, dry goods trade; George Thum, hardware and machinery dealers; James Gillie, saloons; W. F. DeVilbiss, furniture trade; George Ashley, hotels and restaurants; Alexander Johnson, banks, wholesale merchants, newspapers, real estate men, etc.

There will be a meeting next Saturday afternoon, to which all farmers and others are invited. Business men of the city are also requested to be present.

BUYS A MARBLE WORKS.

'Squire Henry F. Bullerman has purchased the marble works of Winfield S. Hughes, at the corner of Columbia and Lafayette streets, and took possession today. Mr. Bullerman has associated himself with Henry F. Bates, a practical marble worker, and the firm name will be H. F. Bullerman & Co. Mr. Bullerman is making an effort to purchase the lot on which the marble works are located from the Pennsylvania company.
